

STATE CAPITOL DOES NOT MEET PRESENT NEEDS

JUMPED TO SAVE HIS LIFE.

Father and Children Had Narrow Escape in Burning Home.

In the storm and rain early this morning the home of George Towle at 651 McCall street caught on fire and burned to the ground.

He was forced to jump from an upper window, a distance of twelve feet, with a child in his arms in order to escape with his life.

The baby he let out of the window in a sheet which was caught by the eldest daughter, Bertha, who managed to make her escape before the fire cut off egress by the stairs.

How the fire started no one seems able to explain, but the flames licked up everything and Towle was taken to the Receiving Hospital without clothes for treatment for his ankle which was badly sprained when he jumped from the window.

An old suit of clothes was found by Steward Harry Borchert and given to the man and he was allowed to go back to the scene of his loss. Nothing remains to the family but some cows from which they partially make a living.

The fire occurred at about 6:30 o'clock. Towle says he was in bed owing to the fact that he had been sick for several days with a fever. They have eight cows. About 5 o'clock Mrs. Towle got up and told her husband that she would help their two eldest boys with the morning chores as she was afraid to have him go out in the rain.

The fire was lit in the kitchen stove down-stairs and then Mrs. Towle and the two boys, Arthur and George went some distance away to the barn where the cows were kept.

It is supposed that the door of the stove must have come open and the fire fallen out on the floor. Towle was up-stairs in bed and in the same room with the baby a year old and a child of four years. In a room adjoining was the daughter, Bertha.

Bertha was the first to discover the fire and ran down-stairs screaming to her father to save himself. She was able to get out of the house but when a few minutes later the father attempted to follow her with a child in each arm his passage was cut off by the flames which had surrounded the bottom of the stairs.

IMPROVE THE STATE CAPITOL.

Senate Will "Instruct" and Not "Request" Delegation.

SACRAMENTO, January 13.—The Senate this morning convened at 11 o'clock and at once adopted the concurrent resolution proposed by Senator C. M. Belshaw providing for the appointment of experts to report to the committee on finance in the Senate and the Ways and Means Committee in the Assembly on contemplated improvements to the State Capitol building.

EXPERT TESTIMONY.
Senator Belshaw said that many departments in the Capitol were overcrowded and both houses were badly pressed for committee room. He said the suggestion had been made to erect a new building to include the State Library, Supreme Court, Chamber and committee rooms. He said his colleagues on the Finance Committee desire expert testimony on the subject. A sum not to exceed $500 was allowed out of the contingent fund to pay the expert.

REQUESTED.
The resolution of Senator Simpson of Alameda providing that when the Legislature addresses the California representatives in Congress, reference to action on certain matters affecting the State of California, that the Congressmen be "requested" and not "instructed" to take the desired action. Senator Simpson spoke in favor of his resolution saying that the adoption of the rule would settle a question that has agitated the Senate and blocked proceedings time and time again.

WANTS CONTROL.
Senator Emmons of Kern, favored "instruction" holding that the Senate should have control over the actions of United States Senators whom it creates, provided such control was deemed necessary in certain instances. Senator Curtin also favored the retention of the right to instruct.

FLINT'S ELECTION.
Twenty-three Senators voted in favor of Simpson's resolution and ten voted against it. President Anderson ruled that the resolution was lost as it required a three-fifths vote to adopt it.

Senator B. W. Hahn offered a resolution providing that the Governor be notified of the action of the joint meeting of the Senate and Assembly in electing Hon. Frank P. Flint United States Senator to succeed Thomas R. Bard.

Senator Curtin gave notice that at the next meeting of the Senate he would move for a re-consideration of "instructing" Congressmen.

At 12:30 o'clock an adjournment was taken by the Senate until 11 o'clock Monday morning.

HOMER S. KING DENIES REPORT
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Homer S. King, president of Wells Fargo and Company's Bank, denies the published report that this well-known financial institution has been absorbed by the Nevada National Bank.

BECAUSE HE WAS GOING TO LOSE HIS WIFE GEO. H. ROWLAND COMMITTED MURDER.

MR. & MRS. GEORGE H. ROWLAND.

Son and Daughters Had a Narrow Escape From Being Shot—West Oakland Shocked Over the Awful Tragedy.

There are few new developments in the terrible tragedy which occurred yesterday afternoon at the residence of George H. Rowland, a Southern Pacific switchman, at 918 Center street, West Oakland. After shooting and killing his wife, Rowland shot at and tried to kill his seventeen-year-old son, Edward, when the boy interfered to save the life of his step-mother.

MEETING IN PARLOR.
Mr. and Mrs. Rowland, Edward Rowland and Mrs. Ethel Day and Mrs. Frank W. Sonderleiter, daughters of Mrs. Rowland, were seated in the parlor shortly before the shooting occurred. The husband and wife had returned from San Francisco to arrange terms for the settlement of their property before they separated. They, together with the rest of the family, were talking about the family differences.

Suddenly Rowland left the group and went into another room. Shortly afterward he called his wife into the kitchen. Edward, who had noticed signs of temper in his father, warned his stepmother not to leave the room.

TWO SHOTS.
Mrs. Rowland answered the summons, notwithstanding, and she had hardly closed the kitchen door when the two fatal shots were fired. Great consternation was caused in the parlor, and Edward ran into the kitchen. Seeing his step-mother lying on the floor in a pool of blood, and his father with the pistol in his hand, the young fellow grabbed a chair and smashed it at his father, knocking the weapon out of his hand. He tried to get the revolver, but the father seized it, and in his madness and anger at the boy's interference, fired a shot at Edward, who rushed out of the room. He had opened the front door to let his step-sisters out in the street, when a bullet passed between his arm and body.

LAI D ASIDE PISTOL.
When the boy had gone, the father laid his pistol on a shelf in the pantry. Taking his razor he stepped out on the back porch, and facing a small looking-glass on the wall, slashed his throat from ear to ear, almost severing it from his body. Staggering back to where his wife's body lay, he died with one arm around her neck.

POLICE SUMMONED.
As soon as his step-sisters were safe in the hands of neighbors, Edward summoned the police. The youth excited the sympathy of every one who saw him. The awful deed of his father seemed to craze him.

Captain of Police Wilson answered the summons and found the house locked. Opening the door with a skeleton key, he walked through the rooms to the kitchen. The sight he saw was ghastly. The bodies of the man and wife were lying on the floor in each other's blood, while the floor, tables and chairs were smeared with gore. Where Rowland had walked from the porch to his wife's body was a trail of blood. The pistol and razor were evidence of the crime. On the kitchen table were the remains of a half-finished meal and a tin-box containing the family documents. A deed, blood-spattered, lay open on the table.

Captain Wilson summoned Dr. W. B. Sanborn, who, after examining the bodies, pronounced both the man and the woman dead.

FOUND PISTOL.
Rowland's pistol, still warm but empty was found on the pantry shelf where he had laid it. Two cartridges were found on the kitchen floor. One bullet went through the side of the house and lodged in the side of the next dwelling. The police sent for the Coroner who removed the bodies to the morgue.

In telling the story to the police, Edward Rowland stated that his father had been drinking heavily, and was enraged over his step-mother's decision to leave him. "But I don't blame her a bit," said the youth, "for my father has been acting awfully of late."

The boy said that there had been no quarrels over his father's drinking, but that Mrs. Rowland had told him that on that account she could not bear to live with him.

DECIDED TO SEPARATE.
They had decided to separate, and were going to settle the property interests amicably. Rowland owned the two-story dwelling which was their home, and he was intending to deed it to his wife. They had gone to San Francisco for that purpose, but not having the necessary documents to make certain transfers, they were obliged to return home without having completed the business. On their return Mrs. Rowland's daughters met them to talk over matters.

THE FAMILY.
Rowland and Mrs. Rowland, who was the widow of Thomas H. Irwin, were married nine years ago. She was 42 years old, being twenty-five years younger than Rowland. Her maiden name was Florence R. McIntyre. Mrs. Ethel Day, wife of Fred Day, an employee of the Southern Pacific Company, who resided at the Rowland home, Mrs. Frank W. Sonderleiter, wife of a member of the firm of Sanford & Sonderleiter, painters of this city, and Mrs. Antonio Silva, wife of a barber at Point Richmond, were daughters of Mrs. Rowland by her former marriage.

Rowland had been in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company for thirty years, having come to Oakland from Canada. Besides Edward, he had another son, Nelson Rowland, who is employed by the Southern Pacific Company in the same capacity as was his father.

JOHN DOIG PASSES TO REST

At an early hour this morning at the family residence on Valdez street, East Oakland, John Doig passed peacefully to eternal rest. During the last five weeks he bore with great patience and fortitude a very severe illness which closed his life.

Mr. Doig leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter; W. F. Doig, Alex. Doig and Mrs. Alex. Brown. The funeral will be strictly private. Flowers will please be omitted.

WANTS REPORT OF BANKS.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The Comptroller of the Currency to-day issued a call for the condition of National Banks at the close of business on Wednesday, January 11th.

FLINT AT HIS HOME.

Senator-Elect Given Warm Reception in the South.

LOS ANGELES, January 13.—United States Senator-elect Frank P. Flint, arrived in Los Angeles from Sacramento at 11:45 this morning.

A special train, carrying nearly a hundred members of the local reception committee, met the Senator's train at Santa Susana and accompanied the Senatorial party to the city. The Senator-elect was joined at Burbank by his wife and two children and his mother.

Arriving at the Arcade depot in Los Angeles, the party was met by a special entertainment committee, headed by a brass band, and escorted up-town.

Many enthusiastic demonstrations marked the trip-up town, where the procession dispersed and Mr. Flint accompanied his family to his home.

To-night the public reception is planned in his honor at the Chamber of Commerce and speeches of felicitation will be delivered.

The Chamber of Commerce has been elaborately decorated for the occasion, a triumphal arch being erected over the doorway, bearing the inscription "Los Angeles to her Senator."

A number of prominent Southern Californians accompanied the Senator-elect south from San Francisco.

DISEASE ATTACKS HORSES.

Stockton Has a New Ailment to Battle Against.

STOCKTON, January 13.—A new disease has fastened its death grip upon the horses of this county.

The disease has characteristics of its own and has yet to be named. It is something entirely new and is not mentioned in the text books. The first cases to be noticed occurred in this city, and since then horses all over the county have fallen victims of the deadly disease. The immediate effect of the disease is paralysis of the throat. When an animal first feels the clutches of the sickness there is similar to ordinary distemper.

The next condition is that of a slight discharge from the head paralysis of the vocal chords and the epiglottis. It soon becomes impossible for the horse to breathe, and he literally chokes to death.

A peculiar thing about the affliction is that there is no swelling in the neck or throat. In fact, the throat is inclined to waste away.

RUSSIA OFFERS PROOF.

Presents Evidence Showing How Chinese Aid Japanese.

PARIS, January 13.—The Associated Press learns authoritatively that Russia's note addressed to the powers relative to China's breaking neutrality gives what Russia claims to be absolute proof of Chinese breaches.

The three main complaints are: First—That the Islands of Micronesia in the Straits of Macassar opposite Port Arthur have been constantly used by the Japanese without Chinese interference as a strategic base and as a harbor for Japanese torpedo boats.

Second—That the Chinese army on the border has accepted the command of the Japanese officers.

Third—That Chinese firms have been constantly working in behalf of the Japanese supplying them with provisions military accoutrements and general war stores.

The note lengthy sets forth the details and complains that China has not given satisfactory explanation of the breaches of neutrality and that there fore Russia advises the powers that she intends to use complete liberty of action in regard to future abuses of neutrality.

WOMAN SAYS SHE'S INSANE.

SAYS SHE LIVES IN SAN JOSE AND WANTS TO BE PUT IN ASYLUM

TACOMA, Wash. January 13.—A red-headed woman who gives her name as Mrs. Charles Haley of San Jose, Cal., arrived on the Northern Pacific train from Portland late yesterday afternoon and asked a policeman to take her to the station saying she feared she was insane and wanted to be committed to an asylum.

She says her husband is in Montana and her sister lives in Laramie, Wyo. The best of attention was given to the woman by Chief Maloney.

She will be examined as to her sanity in the Superior Court.

PASTOR'S LETTER STIRS 'EM.

PUBLISHED COMMUNICATION FROM REV. INGRAM CAUSES SENSATION

READING Pa. Jan 13.—Something of a sensation has been created by the publishing of a letter from Rev. Dr. Ingram of Reading relative to the inquiry into the presentment filed by Bishop Labot of the diocese of Central Pennsylvania.

None of the members of the board saw the letter until they read it in the newspaper.

Some of the men who are charged on Dr. Ingram with being prejudiced against him would discuss his letter to publication. Their friends however decline the attack upon him to be entirely untrue.

JUMPED TO SAVE HIS LIFE

John Morley, the English statesman who was once thought of as one of the country were attending in their originality. As he was standing at one of the entrances to your new subway in New York, a man passed him who apparently had gone through the tunnel. The man was a man of a stout, energetic crowd. His companion asked him how he got through the tunnel. The man said he had been pushed through the tunnel by a man pushing the debris out of his hat, which has just been forced through a sausage skin.

PROTECT SCHOOL TEACHERS

Bill Making it a Misdemeanor to Upbraid Pedagogues.

SACRAMENTO, January 13.—A bill of bills was introduced in the Senate today by the committee on education in an attempt to protect the dignity of the teaching profession. The bill is entitled "An act to make it a misdemeanor to upbraid or abuse a teacher in the discharge of his or her duties."

The bill is introduced in response to a request from the State Teachers' Association, which has been active in the past in securing legislation to protect the rights of teachers.

The bill provides that any person who upbraids or abuses a teacher in the discharge of his or her duties shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to a fine of not more than $500 or to imprisonment in the State Prison for not more than six months.

The bill also provides that any person who upbraids or abuses a teacher in the discharge of his or her duties shall be liable to a fine of not more than $500 or to imprisonment in the State Prison for not more than six months.

SERVED WRONG LITIGANT.

Charge of Fraud Made in a Mortgage Case in Court.

Charging that Thomas F. Chaffield, a real estate dealer of the firm of Vincent and Chaffield with others at 228 Montgomery street in San Francisco loaned $1000 for him on what was represented to be a first mortgage when in reality it was a second and then to cover up his deception paid the interest regularly for three years and in the interim allowed the property to be sold and distributed also furnishing a man whom he represented to be the plaintiff to receive the summons in the case.

Henry C. Wulff began proceedings today to try and recover his property and also to have the attention of the Grand Jury brought to what is alleged to be one of the most flagrant acts of double dealing on record.

Attorney Henry Davis of San Francisco who represents Wulff in a statement of the facts for his client this morning said Mr. Wulff is employed as head chemist in the Selby works in San Francisco. He is a very busy man. He has a little money to loan and Thomas Chaffield has been doing this for him and has made several very advantageous loans for him and in this way gained his confidence.

In 1901 he came to Wulff and told him that he had a good loan of $1000 for him on a first mortgage. Wulff gave him the money and told him to make the loan and later he was given what he was told was a first mortgage on a piece of property out on Twentieth street in Oakland. Wulff was paid the interest of 8 per cent on the money up to a few months ago when the mortgage becoming due Wulff began proceedings to foreclose it and then discovered that he was out of court. The land had been sold under order of court to satisfy the first mortgage. The court records showed that my client had made an appearance in the case and had been represented by counsel, some man representing himself as Wulff had been introduced by Chaffield to Howard K. James of Alameda as Wulff and had accepted the service of summons and James was retained to look out for his interest which was done. He signed an agreement and turned over certain moneys to Chaffield on behalf of Wulff. We intend to open this entire matter up and will advise with District Attorney Allen to have the matter brought to the attention of the Grand Jury.

In relation to his connection in the matter Howard K. James was in court with an affidavit prepared to read to Judge Hall which however, he was not allowed to do owing to the fact that the Judge held that he could not entertain the motion made by Davis to have the former judgement of court set aside but the remedy lay in a suit in equity and that would be the proper place for James affidavit.

The substance of the affidavit however was to the effect that he served a number of summons at the time the suit was brought to foreclose the first mortgage and that he was looking for Wulff and went to the office of Chaffield to inquire for him and was told by Chaffield that Wulff was out in the country but would be at the office in a few days and that he could then serve him there. This was agreed upon and at the appointed time James states that he appeared at the office and was introduced to a man as being Mr. Wulff and served him with the summons. He was also at that time employed by Chaffield to represent Wulff's interest in the settlement of the matter and signed the agreement between the different parties to the action as Wulff's attorney got his fee. He knew nothing further in regard to the matter until Attorney Davis called upon him and wanted to know how it happened that he had represented Wulff and then introduced him to the real Mr. Wulff whom James acknowledges he had never seen before and also that he was not the man he had served with the summons in Chaffield's office.

KNOCKED DOWN BY FOOTPAD.

Merchant Assaulted By Thug, Who Secures Nothing.

A M. Carrol a merchant residing at 480 Twenty-second street, reported to the police this morning that he was assaulted by a footpad armed with a slung shot at the corner of Twenty-second street and Telegraph avenue last night about 6 o'clock while he was on his way home.

The thug hit him over the head on the back and on the hand leaving bruises in each place. After Carrol was knocked down the thug began searching his pockets but was frightened away by the approach of a pedestrian and the close proximity of a Telegraph avenue car. According to Mr. Carrol's relation of the affair the footpad used a rubber hose filled with shot.

I was on my way home I had just closed my store and I do not suppose it was much after 6 o'clock when I was assaulted. I saw the blow coming for my head and threw up my hand to avert it. I succeeded but was not able to ward off the other blows. I fell and while I did not lose consciousness I was stunned. The robber started to go through my pockets but was frightened away before he had gotten anything.

HAD RIGHT TO DESTROY.

CANNOT QUESTION STOESEL'S ACTION IN BLOWING UP HIS WARSHIPS.

TOKIO, January 13.—evening—There is a growing sentiment here to discourage further criticism of General Stoesel's action in damaging the ships and fortifications at Port Arthur after his letter looking to the opening of negotiations for capitulation was sent to General Nogai.

The Nichi Nichi today authoritatively says that there is no question of the right of the Russians to blow up their warships and damage their guns while negotiations were pending and it points out that they showed good faith by stopping the destruction of property immediately that the capitulation compact was signed.

The Ladies' Suit-Price-Reducer's Latest and Greatest Effort

There has been a steady rush of business in the Cloak and Suit section since the ladies of Oakland and surrounding towns were made aware of what we are doing; of the keen edge of the price-pruner and of how relentlessly it was being used. We have just completed the inventory of this section with the result that a great many tailored suits of many grades, but all correct in style, have been put on the special list, priced as follows:

A selection of well-made, desirable, everyday Walking Suits that were priced $18.50, $20.00 and $22.50 . . . . .
are now $12.50

Suits that were $22.50 to $25.50 . . . . .
are now $15.00

For instance:
Tailored Suits that were $28.50 and $27.50
now $18.50
Tailored Suits that were $37.50 and $32.50
now $25.00
Tailored Suits that were $45.00 and $40.00
now $30.00
Tailored Suits that were $52.50 and $50.00
now $37.50

In the higher grades also the reductions are equally steep.

MISSES' SUITS, JACKETS and COATS, and the entire stock of DRESS and WALKING SKIRTS show reductions ranging from 10 to 40 per cent.

Warm Wrappers Special 95c

Made of good heavy flannelette and worth $1.25. Two styles—one is corset lined and comes in black, blue, red and gray with pretty stripes; the other style has a vogue effect with barettes and comes in gray, blue, black and white, and red figured flannelette.

Both styles have full bishop sleeves, wide skirts and deep hounce.

Kimona Robes of Heavy Eiderdown Special $2.75

This lot of handsome, flowing Kimona robes, made of heavy German eiderdown, embraces two lines:

One style is of rich Persian mixture in all colors, with the entire front and sleeves finished with a wide band of satin, harmonizing in color with the ground of the robe.

The other style has cord and tassel; sleeves and collar are trimmed with bias folds of satin to match.

These robes are regular $3.50 values.

Dress Linings 10 per cent discount in January

This department is stocked to its limit; all good linings and findings for dresses, skirts and waists will be found here; the discount inducement should prompt you to buy now for your new spring costume.

Furs Reduced

The entire remaining stock of fur collars, boas and scarfs has been cut one-fourth in price. They were very generous values at the start—they are much more so now.

The grades include good furs from $1.50 to $25.00. . . . .
now $1.15 to $18.75

Scissors Special 39c

These were evidently used in cutting their own price; the original tags read—Special 50c. They are a special value made specially for us and of such good quality that we permitted our own name to be put on them; 7 inches long, gilt handles.

January Sale of Muslin Underwear

REBUILD BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

Must Be Reconstructed to Prevent Possible Catastrophe.

NEW YORK, January 13.—Fearful lest the strain to which the Brooklyn bridge is being subjected will weaken it to such an extent that a great catastrophe might be possible, engineers of the Department of Bridges are reported to have determined that the structure must be completely rebuilt. To do this it will require at least two years and a massive traffic between New York and Brooklyn will have to be diverted to the Williamsburg bridge, the new Manhattan bridge and the Brooklyn subway tunnel, now in course of construction. Four or five years may elapse before the plan can be accomplished as great traffic problems will have to be solved beforehand.

Through an inspection of the Brooklyn bridge shows it to be in a safe condition at present, it is admitted by all the engineers who have been connected with the work, according to the Herald, that even steel has an age limit and that this limit is being rapidly approached. The structure is now having to withstand a weight of traffic which it never was intended to bear when the plans for it were made, and in addition to the wear and tear which were to be expected there has been an added impairment of the structure by electrolysis.

Plans for rebuilding the bridge, which are now in the stage of preparation, call for the construction of a practically new structure. But little will remain of the present bridge except the great stone piers, which are practically imperishable. When finished it will be as modern in every respect as the Williamsburg bridge, with a double deck and far better facilities for crossing of elevated and surface cars.

It will be necessary to add greatly to the weight of the anchorage, so as to withstand the added weight of the double deck. It may not be found necessary to alter the present promenade deck except by strengthening it, but all suspended girders will be replaced.

From these girders no immediate danger is anticipated, but in view of the threatened disaster a few years ago, when seventeen of them broke, no chances will be taken by leaving any of the old ones when the structure is overhauled.

It is estimated that the cost will be $8,000,000.

A JAPANESE ON THE WATER QUESTION

BY W. S. HARLOW.

Mr. Toki Hama, a highly intelligent Japanese, who is perhaps as well posted upon local matters as very many persons to the manor born, takes a lively interest in the water supply subject. He is familiar with the methods of procuring Japanese labor wherever it is wanted, and has amassed quite a fortune as a promoter and supplier in that line. He says he does not believe the Bay Cities Water Company, which ever bring water to the city, but he thinks it highly probable that the scheme of that company may progress so far as to the tearing up of all the streets and laying water pipes for a supply. He is anxious to see developments, that far, in the hope that he will be able to make a contract with the company to furnish a couple of thousand men to do the excavations. He says, "If the Bay Cities Water Company will wait until the war between Japan and Russia is over, I will bring to Oakland two thousand hardy, trained soldiers, expert in the art of trench excavation, at a cost far lower than such work can be done by the workmen of this country. They can work longer hours with less fatigue and live upon less expensive food. They can be housed in tents upon the streets where they work, and their campfires at night would be a picturesque sight for our people, illustrating, as it would, to some degree, the battle grounds of the Japanese armies at Port Arthur and other places. It is true," he says, "that our streets would be in a horrible condition for a few months and possibly would need remacadamizing, but," he naively suggests with a smile, "that would be another question."

"Perhaps," he says, "the Japanese laborers could get permanent employment in the work of rehabilitating the streets after the Bay Cities Company gets through with them. If not, they would find employment in other lines of labor, and remain here permanently, and in time become citizens of the United States and take a hand in the manipulation of primaries in the interests of good government, just as our other foreign born citizens have learned to do so well."

MATINEE AT YE LIBERTY THEATER

"Briek" and "Cinders" and all of the other quaint characters of "A Nutmeg Match" will amuse the matinee patrons of Ye Liberty playhouse at the regular Saturday matinee to be given to-morrow. It has been a most satisfactory performance and has pleased all classes of theater-goers all week. There is much delightful comedy. One scene alone is worth the price of admission and that is the climax of the second act which shows a real pile driver in full operation and from which "Cinders" rescues in a most heroic manner from a horrible death the hero of the play. There will be the usual bargain matinee on Sunday. Next week J. E. Gilmore and the Magestic Theater Company will present the great acting tragedy, "The Bells," with that eminent actor as Mathias.

"That woman stood on my foot in the car all the way up from down town." "Why didn't you withdraw your foot?" "There was no room to put it down any place else, and besides it rested on a soft felt shoe belonging to a girl named"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SCIENTISTS READY TO REPORT.

DECLARE THEY HAVE PROVED THAT CANCER IS A PARASITIC DISEASE.

BUFFALO, N. Y., January 13.—Scientists who since 1899 have been studying cancer at the Gratiwick Pathological Laboratory of the University of Buffalo, under the patronage of the State of New York, are, stated to be preparing a report which indicates that they are nearing the solution of a great problem.

According to men who have taken part in the work, it has been proved that cancer is a parasitic disease, infectious in type; it has been transplanted and reproduced in perfectly healthy animals; that the reproduction has been true cancer as it exists in the human, and that the disease in animals has been cured by the administration of a serum prepared in the laboratory. What remains now is the application of the results of animal experimentation to the cure of the disease as it exists in the human being.

Much work remains to be done before Dr. Roswell Park, director of the laboratory, will be prepared to make the final announcement of a serum suitable for use in the alleviation and cure of cancer in human beings, for that this will be forthcoming in due time is declared to be an almost assured fact.

Additional interest is given to the matter because of the conclusions reached recently by the cancer commission of Harvard Medical College, when that body gave up all further consideration of the subject and announced that cancer was neither contagious nor hereditary; that the only cure for the disease was early operation at the hands of the surgeon, and that no discovery had been made which offers any hope for cure of cancer. The white mice used for the experi-

PHYSICIAN CONVERTED

LOS ANGELES PHYSICIAN WAS in this city about six months ago.

His standing may be known from the fact that he was for a long time intimately related to the medical department of one of the Transcontinental lines.

He visited a relative in this city who is a stockholder in the Jno. J. Fulton Co. The latter told the doctor that the long-sought cure for Bright's Disease and Diabetes had been discovered.

He questioned it, but declared his willingness to test it in the first case coming to his hands, and a dozen of the Compound was sent him in anticipation. This was in August last.

The San Francisco relative came into our office Saturday waving a letter triumphantly. It was from the doctor and acknowledged the cure. We are allowed to copy the following:

"I hope you are realizing a big thing in the Fulton Compound. I have a patient now about well of one of the worst cases of Bright's Disease I have ever known. I have another very much improved but he is careless and I fear is a poor subject for results."

"We mentioned the fact last week that fifty-two physicians in the city of Philadelphia are now saving lives with Fulton's Compound."

Nearly nine-tenths of all cases recover from Bright's Disease for Fulton's Renal Compound, for Diabetes Fulton's Diabetic Compound.

When to suspect Bright's Disease—weakness or loss of weight; puffiness, hands or eyelids; kidney trouble after third month; urine may show sediment; falling vision; drowsiness; one or more of these. Owl Drug Co., Thirteenth and Broadway.

ments in the Buffalo laboratory were obtained from Professor Jensen of Copenhagen, about a year ago. Although the animals died between New York and Buffalo, inoculations from one were successful in several mice, and by repeated transplantation a large number of mice with cancer have been available for experimentation. This occurrence which led to the discovery of the serum in question was the spontaneous recovery of several mice which had been inoculated.

Possibility of the animal overcoming the cancer led the experimenters to investigate the conditions under which this occurred, and, having for some time had in mind the possibility of the serum treatment for cancer, they conducted a series of experiments which, they declare, have proved beyond question that the blood of mice which recovered possesses an anti-toxic quality and when injected into mice suffering with cancer stops the growth and when the tumors are not too large, causes their disappearance and leaves the mouse so protected that the tumors do not return.

Further experiments then showed that the mice cured in this manner likewise possess in their blood an anti-toxin which works in a similar way.

showing that the cure is the result of the development of a special immunity from cancer.

The field which is opened by these primary experiments is apparently a difficult one, but the scientists are fully confident that they prove in principle that not only is cancer curable but extend the hope that some means may be found to develop a similar human serum which can be applied to human beings.

New Cure for Cancer.
All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. James Walter of Buffalo, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it, and now it is perfectly well." ## POLITICAL JOB GOES ABEGGING

BERKELEY, January 12.—A political job that went abegging for three days, has at last found a claimant. After several ineffectual attempts Marshall Kerns has succeeded in inducing Edward Gove to be plaintiff in his office. Richard Boettiger, a baseball player and former coach of the Berkeley High School team, was approached by Marshall Kerns and tendered the position, but he refused, and for a time it was thought that the position would never be filled.

The objections to the acceptance of the position are that the Board of Town Trustees would not make it a permanent one. The place was created at the last meeting of the board.

The police system of Berkeley has been improved in that the five deputies working in different parts of the city at night are required to ring up the Marshall's office every fifty minutes during the night and report to the sergeant. The office 'phone by this innovation is rung every ten minutes by one of the deputies.

WASHINGTON, January 12.—The President today sent to me Senate the nomination of James D. Yeomans of Iowa to be the Interstate Commerce Commissioner.

SAFE CRACKERS ROB A SALOON

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., June 12.—Safe crackers early this morning broke into John Aver's saloon in the heart of the business section of this city, carried the safe to the rear of the place and broke it open. They were heard by a man sleeping in an adjoining building, but he failed to give an alarm. Aver declines to state the amount of his loss, but it is said to be $500. He had no confidence banks and kept a large sum of money in his safe.

WIFE SURPRISED HUSBY HOW OUR NEIGHBOR GROWS.

Visits Him in Alaska to Find Him Housed With a Squaw and Three Children.

A fat and juicy story has floated down from the Klondike to saute out the festivities incident to the passing of the old year and the beginning of the new year.

A lady highly connected and well known in Oakland society particularly the portion of it that clusters around the aristocratic neighborhood of Lake Merritt, conceived the idea of giving her husband a pleasant surprise by visiting him unexpectedly in the wilds of Alaska.

The husband, by the way, was formerly one of the swells of Oakland society, a nobby dresser and a devotee of fashion. His wife has a good voice and used to sing in a fashionable church choir.

The visit to Alaska was a double surprise. When the husband, who has been making his headquarters in the frozen North for several years, was found basking in the smiles and companionship of a squaw who had three pledges of affection as testimonial to her willingness to console a white man far from home and friends.

There was a tableau. Likewise a scene punctuated by tears, reproaches and an indignant parting. The lady returned to Oakland vowing she would never again live in connubial bonds with her recreant partner. The husband is still in Alaska with the dusky daughter of the Klondike and her three children.

In the meantime Lakeside society is talking under its breath and curiously awaiting future developments.

MANY BILLS IN PARKER WILSON SENATE. SHOOTS HIMSELF

NEW MEASURES ARE PROPOSED BY THE SENATORS.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—Following his action in Senate caucus this morning when he presented a resolution providing that all the appointments made by Governor Pardee during the interim of the sessions of the Legislature be first ratified in caucus before given final approval, Senator Ralston introduced a bill in the Upper House to provide legal notice for the rejection of gubernatorial appointments.

Ralston had threatened to introduce the measure some days ago but it was not its appearance to-day consequently caused something of a sensation. The text of the Ralston bill follows:

"Vacancies occurring in office during the recess of the Legislature, the appointment to which is vested in the Governor and Senate or Legislature, must be filled by appointment made by the Governor and the person so appointed shall hold office for the term of his appointment provided, however, that in case the Senate refuses or fails to confirm such appointment at the session of the Legislature next succeeding, said office shall, upon the final adjournment of the Legislature, become immediately vacant and the said appointee shall not be eligible to appointment to said vacancy."

WANTS MONEY FOR FABIOLA

Unable to find any use for some $3,039.34 left by the late Theresa L. Merchant for the aid of the Red Cross Society of California to maintain a hospital for the benefit of sick soldiers, J. B. Richardson as trustee of the money has petitioned the courts to allow him to give this money to the Fabiola Hospital in consideration of which it is proposed by that association to always keep a room in which a soldier may be nursed.

In his petition it is stated that the Red Cross Society is at present not engaged in hospital work, that during the winter the Spanish-American war the Red Cross Society availed itself of the accommodations of Fabiola Hospital; that under the rules of the hospital any one donating $5,000 to the hospital may designate a room and may permanently exercise the privilege of designating it.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Boycotting An Editor.

The theatrical managers of New York have declared a boycott on James G. Metcalfe, the editor of Life, the well-known comic and satirical weekly. The boycott is in the form of an agreement by the managers to deny the offending editor admission to any one of New York's forty-seven theaters. He may hold a regularly purchased ticket, but it will not avail him, so the managers declare. Perhaps.

The ground given for denying Mr. Metcalfe admission to the theaters is that he has unjustly satirized and criticized the managers "along racial lines." In his persistent attacks on what is called the "theatrical trust" Metcalfe has referred in terms of bitter sarcasm to the fact that the organizers and managers of the theatrical syndicate are Jews. There is not much excuse for this display of racial antipathy but there is no denying that the methods of the trust have aroused intense opposition on the part of theater-goers, the members of the profession and the dramatic critics. It is a common complaint that the stage has been commercialized and the drama degraded; that legitimate competition among actors and managers has been destroyed, and that playwrights are mere sweatshop workmen for the group of managers composing the syndicate.

But for the effect their operations have had on the drama and on the theatrical profession there would be no pith or point in the ethnological references of Life to the New York managers. It is because they typify certain unlovely traits and are the proponents of a sordid grasping policy which reduces art to the level of coal-shoveling Metcalfe's satire has a sting.

However, it is extraordinary that one small satirical weekly has had the power to goad the managers into publicly declaring a boycott on its editor. It is a frank confession of the power of the press when it attacks a public evil and voices a robust public sentiment. The members of the theatrical syndicate are not blamed because they are Jews, but because they have made a sloopshop business of the stage and are exercising a ruthless and debasing tyranny over both the theater-going public and the dramatic profession. Their boycott on the editor of Life will not bother that gentleman much but it will be a tremendous advertisement for his paper.

Fire Losses in America.

The fire waste of 1904 was much the greatest record of any year since those of the early '70s, which experienced the Chicago and Boston conflagrations. The account kept by the New York Journal of Commerce which embraces only fires involving a loss of $10,000 or over, places the aggregate destruction in the United States and Canada at $252,364,050. The Baltimore conflagration alone contributed $70,000,000 to the total; and the fires at Toronto, Ont., and Rochester, N. Y., added $12,500,000 and $3,200,000 respectively. There were four other fires, causing losses in excess of $1,000,000 each—at Shelby, O., Yazoo City, Miss., Peoria, Ill., and Sioux City, Ia. The average losses from fire during the past five years exceeded $120,000,000 a year. This is called a scandalous record by the Springfield Republican. While the facilities for fighting fire in the United States far surpass those of any other country and while American methods of fire fighting are infinitely superior to those of Europe, the fire losses in this country continue to be vastly heavier than the losses in other civilized communities. We build too much with wood and we take too many chances. We are great in putting out fires, but we take too little precaution to prevent them. Police regulations in regard to stovepipes and dangerous flues is too little observed. In no other civilized country is there so much carelessness and so little official supervision. Inflammable buildings, lack of effective inspection and reckless indifference are responsible for the vast majority of fires in America. It is an expensive lesson we are learning, but it must be learned in time. In regard to fires nothing is truer than "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." Until we build with more discretion and take more precautions, the loss from fire annually will be sufficient to support a vast standing army.

Hill's Railroad Pooling Scheme.

James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, proposes to fight the legislation to correct the rate evil unless legal sanction is given to pooling. There are some arguments in favor of pooling and some exceedingly strong ones against it. For instance, it enables one to invade the field of another by a rate-cutting process in order to compel a division of business. Mr. Hill wants to claim for the Great Northern a share of the through business centering at San Francisco; that is, he desires the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe to give him a portion of their California business as an inducement for him to refrain from cutting rates on through freight destined to this State to a ruinous figure. If pooling were prohibited by law there would be no object to be gained by carrying freight 1500 miles further at a loss merely to make the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe divide some of their earnings with him. Ever since the completion of the Great Northern Mr. Hill has set up a claim to a share of California business. At times he has made special low rates to San Francisco to bring the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe to terms. He did not want low rates but really desired the transcontinental roads terminating at San Francisco to raise their rates and give him the excess as an inducement to stop rate-cutting. Therefore his campaign has been directed at low rates for this State. His object is to eliminate competition and keep up transcontinental rates, and for that reason his program is inimical to the best interests of the shippers of California.

THE FALL OF PORT ARTHUR

TAKES $43,000 FROM OUR COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Effect of Bill By Supt. Kirk For New Apportionment of Money For Education.

[Special to THE TRIBUNE.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—A radical amendment to Section 1532 of the State School Law has just been introduced into the Legislature by Dr. Rowell in the Senate and Mr. Slavin in the Assembly which will greatly reduce the annual amount of money apportioned by the State to Alameda County and, indeed, to all large centers of school population in the State.

It is claimed, however, for the measure that it will increase the apportionment to schools in small communities. Whether the advantages the amendment confers upon the smaller school districts will be considered an equitable offset to the loss sustained by the larger cities, is as yet a matter of doubt. It is bound to attract wide attention and arouse diverse comment throughout the State.

LOSS OVER $43,000.
An idea of the effect of the proposed amendment may be obtained from the fact that, under the present method of apportionment, Alameda County, for the school year ending June received $382,046.61. Under the proposed apportionment, Alameda county would receive only $338,756.59, which means a loss of $43,290.11.

BIG CUT.
The loss which San Francisco would sustain would be even much more pronounced. It would represent the difference between $565,455.42 and $494,330.20 which is the good round sum of $71,125.22. Some of the legislators from San Francisco and Oakland say that such a reduction of the school money apportionment will not be made without strenuous protest on the part of representatives of those places on the floor of both Houses.

This reduction, if agreed to at all, will be effected through a radical change in the method of apportioning school money. Instead of distributing the State money on the basis of the school census, as is the rule now, the proposed method would distribute it by first allowing $200 for each teacher, and, after that amount had been set aside, the balance would be apportioned on the average daily attendance at school.

GOVERNOR'S IDEA.
This proposed plan has originated with Superintendent of Instruction Kirk, but that gentleman admits that the plan is just as much the Governor's as it is his own.

"Instead of apportioning the school money, as it is now done," said Mr. Kirk, "why not do it on a basis similar to that which prevails with the County Superintendent of Education when he is apportioning the money of the State after it reaches him. Hereafter the apportionment has been so much per capita. If the rule is found to work well with the County Superintendent why is it not good enough to be applied by the State?"

OLD COMMON SENSE

Change Food When You Feel Out of Sorts.

"A great deal depends upon yourself and the kind of food you eat," the wise old doctor said to a man who came to him sick with stomach trouble and sick headache once or twice a week, and who had been taking pills and different medicines for three or four years.

He was induced to stop eating any sort of fried food or meat for breakfast and was put on Grape-Nuts and cream, leaving off all medicines. In a few days he began to get better and now he is entirely recovered and writes that he is in better health than he has been in twenty years. This man is 53 years old and says he feels "like a new man all the time." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," found in each package.

Superintendent of Education? I should appropriate $200 for every teacher and, after doing that, distribute the rest according to the per capita daily attendance at school. While this method may hurt the larger school centers, I think, at the same time, that it is right. While it makes quite a reduction in the amount which Alameda County would receive, at the same time, that county would get $37,000 more than it paid into the State. The number of pupils allowed to a teacher would be 70."

Another amendment to the school law affects Section 1533 which raises the allowance for a teacher from $400 to $500 per year in districts in which there are fewer than twenty children. Under this limitation, the smallest number of children allowable for a school is five but that number is increased to seven by the proposed amendment.

Both amendments have been referred to the Committee on Education and will provoke a discussion which will attract attention all over the State.

MONEY FOR COUNTY SCHOOLS.
Thomas J. Kirk, Superintendent of Public Instruction has made the following apportionment of money for the high schools of Alameda County:

Alameda	$2,737.20
Berkeley	4,104.60
Oakland	5,634.85
Oakland Polytechnic	2,509.55
Union No. 1	522.55
Union No. 2	735.46
Union No. 3	737.70

Total.....$16,792.91
The same official has just distributed among the public schools of Alameda county, on the basis of a school census of 34,939, the sum of $237,235.51.

DECOTO PERSONALS

DECOTO, January 12.—A social was held at the home of Mrs. Haines, Friday evening, a large crowd being present.

The ladies of the Decoto Guild met with the Niles Guild Wednesday in the church parlors and spent a very pleasant afternoon together.

The annual meeting of the Decoto Church was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Lee.

Naughton, Lee of Newman, spent a few days with D. C. Kelley and family this week.

Miss Helen Crane of San Francisco spent Sunday with P. Meyer and family.

Mrs. Stoppel of Sacramento returned to her home Thursday, after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. W. Anderson.

Miss Charlotte Meyer spent a few days in San Jose the first of the week.

BARBER INSPECTORS IN DEMAND.

Move to Be Made to Give Tonsorialists Legal Endorsement.

[Special to THE TRIBUNE.]

SACRAMENTO, January 13.—Among the delegates to the convention of the State Federation of Labor, which was recently held in this city, were several barbers from Oakland, among them G. Smith and Ben Lichtenstein, both of whom were greatly impressed by the fact that in this city barber shops do not open on Sunday.

Smith and Lichtenstein declared this Sunday closing was the result of a local ordinance which prohibited the working of barbers on Sunday.

A resident of this place and a barber, too, stated, however, that the Sunday closing was to be credited to a rule of the local barbers' union, to which every member of the organization lived up to with great conscientiousness.

Smith stated that an attempt would be made to have the Legislature pass a bill closing all barber shops in the State on Sunday, despite the fact that some legislators held that closing such shops by civic action was unconstitutional.

Lichtenstein said that the Legislature would be again appealed to pass a law appointing three barber inspectors to take the place of the Barber Commission, which, two years ago, was legislated out of existence.

The bill for the new venture, he said, would come from San Francisco. The inspectors would be able to report on the barber colleges of San Francisco and other features which are causing men of the craft a great deal of annoyance, and perhaps be able to take steps to place the calling on a high plane, which would be appreciated alike both by the craft and the public.

Lichtenstein said further that he would be a candidate for the position of one of the inspectors when the board should be created.

ARCHBISHOP GOES OVER NAMES

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—The conference to determine who shall be chosen to succeed the late Rev. Father Michael Kling as pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Oakland, was held yesterday afternoon, and the names of those who are eligible to appointment by Archbishop Riordan were carefully considered. No appointment has yet been determined upon, as the conference is in its preliminary stages. Father Kling, who had served faithfully his church for so many years, died on the 12th of last December.

Wife (reluctantly).—$99.98.

WILL REVIEW NOMINEES OF THE GOVERNOR.

Ralston Strives to Re-Enact Old Law Relating to Confirmation of Appointees.

[Special to THE TRIBUNE.]

SACRAMENTO, January 13.—The Senate is not exactly satisfied with the manner in which, for some time past, it has been handling appointments of Governor Pardee made since the preceding session of the Legislature. In that body there are some members who are satisfied to confirm every nomination made by Governor Pardee, but there are also some Senators who desire to have his appointments reviewed before endorsing them.

This question has been discussed in various ways in the Senate caucus lately, the last consideration resulting in an agreement to submit all the appointments to the caucus for consideration.

This submission will take place after the appointments have been referred to the committee of the Senate, and will, by that committee, be sent to the caucus by that decision was reached by a vote of 19 in the affirmative to 12 in the negative, one Senator, Lukens, being absent.

When the subject was brought up in the caucus a move was made to table it, but that was lost by a heavy vote in the affirmative.

NO REBUKE INTENDED.
This action on the part of the Republican caucus is not intended as a rebuke to Governor Pardee, neither is it considered proof of a statement which has recently been in circulation here that the nominations of the Governor are to be held up by the Senate.

The right of the Senate to pass upon the nominees of the Governor is denied by no one. Governor Pardee is not striving to force his nominations upon the Senate. If the nominations are not pleasing to that body, he will take no offense if an unfavorable nomination fails to receive endorsement.

BACK TO OLD-TIME LAW.
The move which has been made in caucus this session in this regard is due, in large measure, to the change made in the law in question under the regime of Governor Gage, which enabled appointees to hold their office almost regardless of any stand that might be taken by the Senate.

To obviate this difficulty Senator Ralston has introduced a bill which renders vacant an office filled by a man appointed by the Governor since the adjournment of the last preceding Legislature, providing that men fail to secure the confirmation of the Senate. The vacancy takes place at the close of the Legislature succeeding the appointment and the same incumbent is not again eligible. The Governor would then be required to make another appointment.

The Governor has a strong backing in the Senate, who do not look upon this bill as an affront to his excellency, for the reason that it is simply a reproduction of the old statute, with the change of which Governor Pardee has had nothing to do.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed "Perfection."

The effect on the digestive organs after using Lash's Kidney and Liver Bitters is truly wonderful.

AFTER THE STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

Senate Investigators Ascertain the Amount of Money Available to Pay Debts.

(Special to The Tribune) ONE L. Hrdlutaohrdluth SACRAMENTO, January 13.—The Hold-Over Investigating Committee of the Senate, at the head of which is Senator Leavitt of Oakland descended this afternoon upon a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture for the purpose of ascertaining what that body proposed to do with the money which it had received in the recent sale of the State Fair Grounds in this city as also what settlement it proposed to make with the State of California.

Senator Leavitt was accompanied by Senators Curtin and Bauer all three of whom have been working on the matter since the last Legislature. There were present, representing the State Board of Agriculture, Directors Rush, Pann Fox, Land and Secretary Lindley. The committee found things in a condition much more satisfactory than was expected, which, of course, may be easily understood in view of the fact that the Board intends before long to move on the Legislature and ask for an appropriation of $190,000 with which to erect new fair buildings on the site recently bought near this city. They will, at the same time, urge that Sacramento county will put up dollar for dollar with the State in fitting up the grounds in question.

MONEY ON HAND

The Investigating Committee was informed that the old fair grounds had been sold for $32,000. Of this amount $22,000 had been paid for the new site. Twenty-nine thousand dollars more had been used to satisfy a judgment which has been pending against the association. There were expenses of surveys and searches amounting to a couple of thousand dollars, thus leaving in the vicinity of $30,000 on hand with which to satisfy obligations amounting to about $30,000.

There is, however, on hand in the State Treasury about $45,000 which is to be paid over to the State Board of Agriculture by California when the Board transfers to the State the title to its new fair grounds. In the event that this title does not pass to the State, it is expected that some difficulty will be experienced by the Board in securing the appropriation for track buildings which it so much desires.

BARD STILL SILENT.

Up to last accounts, so far as known here Senator Bard had not expressed himself regarding the election of his rival, Frank P. Flint of Los Angeles to the United States Senatorship at Washington. Speaking on the subject today Senator Rowell, the manager for Senator Bard said:

"I have telegraphed Senator Bard the result of the senatorial campaign but have not yet heard from him. He won't say anything. I presume he feels somewhat humiliated. He is more content, however, in his conscience than he is humiliated because of defeat."

WHY THEY KEPT OUT OF CAUCUS.

THE TRIBUNE correspondent today learned why Senators Simpson, Mattos and Leavitt, and Assemblymen Strobridge and Wals did not go into the Republican caucus on United States Senator. Messrs Leavitt and Wals were pronounced Knight men and did not desire to change allegiance until it had been done at the last minute.

Senator Simpson had originally voted for Flint and felt that there would be enough Flint men on hand without himself. Senator Mattos said the caucus was held at 9 o'clock in the morning and he did not know it was to be called at that hour until he arrived at the Capitol and learned that the caucus had finished its work and adjourned. Assemblyman Strobridge said he had been sick and knew nothing about the caucus. He would have signed the call had he been well although his original vote was given to Bard.

MATTOS AFTER BIRDS.

Senator Mattos will lead the onslaught in the Senate on English sparrows, sharp-shinned hawks, coopers hawks, dark hawks, green horned owls, blue jays and several other predatory birds which have been living in this State at the expense of the farmer, the horticulturist and the vine-grower. While the law protects the feathered songster and birds whose plumage delights the eye, still, Senator Mattos has introduced an amendment which sounds the knell of the feathered robbers mentioned when caught in one's premises destroying his fruit or cereals. The bill will be warmly supported.

TAPPAN WILL DROP RECORDER. Assemblyman Bates introduced today a bill abolishing the office of Re-order in Alameda the incumbent of which is Judge Tappan. The Judge can afford to have this office taken away from him because he receives only one dollar a month from it as salary waiving all the rest, though he also pulls down $125 a month as justice of the peace in that same city. Judge Tappan does not object to the abolition in question. In fact Mr. Bates' move has been made at the request of the judge himself who declares he is satisfied with one office, that of justice. Indeed, out of the latter, he draws down monthly only $125 when in reality he is entitled to only $85 a month. Tappan however, between those two sums he allows to slumber in the treasury at Alameda.

How Tappan secured both the offices of Justice and Recorder is a long story. It is full of incidents, some of which divided Alameda in twain two years ago and brought delegation after delegation to the Legislature at the time. The old wounds are not yet healed and some of the campaigns of two years ago say that if any office is to be abolished it ought to be that of justice which costs the people $166 a month whereas the position of Recorder costs Assemblyman Waste of Berkeley has does not want to surrender all the emoluments of his civic preferment.

WASTE AND HEALTH BOARD.

Assemblyman Waste of Berkeley has introduced several bills in behalf of the State Board of Health which have been prepared by Dr. N. K. Foster, secretary of that body with the assistance of other well known physicians. These bills give that Board much more power and define its duties much more accurately than they are defined on the enactment now on the statute books. The bills are based upon the experience of Boards of Health in other States.

WASTE RESOLUTION LOST.

A pretty debate took place in the Assembly under the inspiration of a resolution introduced by Assemblyman Waste of Berkeley which provided that, hereafter, no more employees be placed on the roll of the Assembly save by a three-fourths vote of the members present. The resolution was criticized and defended with some skill but was finally lost by a vote of 39 to 35, Mr. Waste being one only Alameda representative who voted for the measure.

AIR BRAKES ON STREET CARS.

Assemblyman Thompson of Alhambra has brought the subject of air brakes on electric cars into the Assembly in a bill which has now gone to the printer. He says he was influenced in his action by no employee of any street railway company now in operation in this State although it is known that a few days ago an attaché of the Oakland Transit Consolidated was here and announced his intention of having such a measure introduced. Thompson says that many cars in Los Angeles and San Francisco are now equipped with this means of preventing accidents and saving life and that it should be applied all over the State.

PARDEE SOON TO APPOINT.

Will Name the New Judges Next Week.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE) SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—Governor Pardee informed THE TRIBUNE correspondent today that he would make his announcement of judges for the new District Court of Appeals early next week.

He is now in correspondence with Chief Justice Beatty of the Superior Court as regards the estimate of the latter of the legal and judicial attainments and ability of several aspirants for positions on that bench. An impression obtains that at least one judge and perhaps two judges may be selected from Alameda county, where Judges Gahner, Ellsworth, Greene, Hall and Melvin are strongly endorsed.

There is no doubt that the Supreme Court commissioners will be remembered.

In some cases, he says, electric cars attain railway speed and hand brakes can not control them in any emergency. He says further, his bill calls for no particular system of brakes. It, however, will go into effect on passage and a violation of it is punishable by a fine of $300.

DID MARRIAGE MAKE HIM INSANE?

NEW YORK, January 13.—Brodie L. Duke, whose recent marriage resulted in his commitment to a sanitarium was brought into the Supreme Court in Brooklyn today on a writ of habeas corpus and after a hearing was sent to the Long Island House until Thursday next. On that day a commission appointed by Justice Gaynor is to meet to inquire into Mr. Duke's condition and make a report as to whether he is insane.

SAYS HIS WIFE LOVES ANOTHER

Alleging that his wife has gone away with one J. J. Porter and is now living at Carson Nevada with him, Peter E. Linster has begun an action of divorce against Elizabeth Linster charging her with desertion. They have been married many years and have one son eighteen years of age.

MINSTREL SHOW AT ST. JOHN'S

Arrangements are being made for a minstrel show to be given on St. Valentine's night at St. John's Church for the benefit of the church. Members of St. John's will assist in the program and present plans the black cock performance will be a most successful affair.

STOESSEL WILL SHOULDER BLAME

TOKIO, January 13.—It is reported that General Stoessel in saying farewell to his troops thanked the officers and men for their heroic defense of Port Arthur. He said he considered the Japanese terms the best that could possibly be offered and that he was ready to shoulder all blame if the surrender of the fortress should be considered premature.

SLEUTHS TO HAVE LICENSE.

May Be Called Upon to Put Up Bond to Do Business.

SACRAMENTO, January 13.—If a bill introduced by McGowan of San Francisco becomes a law, all the private detectives of Oakland and other parts of the State will have to put up a bond for $3000 with the State Controller and pay $100 for a license to carry on their sleuth work or else go out of business.

The license, however, will be good for five years.

McGowan declares that the bill was handed him by all the detective agencies and detective associations in San Francisco and that they are a unit in declaring the measure in question to be absolutely necessary to keep the profession up to a high standard.

They assert that there are hundreds of spotters and "stool-pigeons" and "gutter-snipes" who profess to be detectives but who are little more than dead-beats, scoundrelmongers and blackmailers.

They say if there were required to give a bond to indemnify people in the event of deception or fraud they would have to go out of the business.

The proposed bill is drawn in a stringent manner. Everybody who seeks detective work or who professes to do detective work is included within its requirements.

BROUGHT REMAINS HOME.

Officers Still Trying to Locate Michael Ahern's Murderers.

The remains of Michael Ahern, who was murdered in Derby, Nevada, on July 19th last, were disinterred by Perkins & Oliver, undertakers of Reno Nevada, Thursday, and brought to Oakland by Miss Annie Ahern, a daughter of the murdered man.

The body was taken to the receiving vault of St. Mary's Cemetery and will be interred tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Father J. B. McNally, pastor of St. Patrick's Church of West Oakland will conduct the services.

Mr. Ahern was employed by the Government in Derby as foreman in some construction work which position he had held for over three years. At the time he was murdered, Ahern was carrying $800 in money, four checks amounting in all to $86, and a gold watch.

Some men in his employ were aware of this fact and it is supposed that they murdered him for his money. After the deed had been committed the body was thrown into the Truckee River, from which it was recovered a few days later by two men who had been employed by the deceased.

When the body was found the $500 and the four checks which were made out to Ahern, and which were a portion of his salary were found in his pockets.

The detectives in that vicinity have been working on the case for several months, and have several clues which they are following up. At the time of the murder the Government offered $500 for the capture of the guilty parties.

Mr. Ahern was 50 years old and a native of Ireland. He had resided for over twenty-seven years, at 925 Pine street, West Oakland.

He leaves, besides a widow, Mrs. M. Ahern, three daughters, Misses Anna Ahern, Miss Katie Ahern, and Mrs. J. Martin.

RECEIPTS INCREASE IN POSTOFFICES

WASHINGTON, January 13.—The gross postal receipts for the fifty largest post-offices in the country for December, 1904, as compared with December, 1903, show a net increase of about 9 per cent. The highest increase was 22 per cent at Peoria, Ill. The only decreases were 4 per cent at Portland, Maine and 13-100 of 1 per cent at St. Joseph, Mo.

The receipts at New York increased almost 6 per cent and at Chicago almost 14 per cent.

BADGES FOR GOOD SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, January 13.—General orders issued by the War Department announce that by authority of the President a badge with ribbon will be issued to each officer and enlisted man in the service to whom a certificate of merit has been or hereafter may be issued, and that campaign badges with ribbons will be issued as articles of the uniform to officers and enlisted men in the service entitled thereto.

STEAMER INDUS STILL AGROUND

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The steamer Indus which struck on Fire Island bar during the fog Wednesday night, was still hard and fast aground to-day and at half tide this forenoon she had a bad list to starboard. All night long the wreckers, assisted by the steamer's crew worked steadily removing the cargo.

SKATING CLUBS IN SESSION.

AMATEUR ASSOCIATION MEETS AND PLANS CHAMPION-SHIP CONTESTS.

NEW YORK, January 13.—Amateur skating organizations of the country have been brought into one body at the annual meeting here of the National Amateur Skating Association of the United States. This means a membership of nearly 10,000 skaters and carries forward the work begun by the late "Father Bill" Curtis several years ago.

The trebling of the old membership was accomplished by the affiliation of the American Skating Association and the Slapner Athletic Club, both of Chicago, the former governing body of the West, and the Canadian Skating Association.

In further carrying forward the government of figure and speed skating and placing it upon the high plane of amateur athletics, the constitution was revised so that in future all amateur skaters must be registered in conformity with the method now pursued by the Amateur Athletic Union. Slight changes were also made in the adoption of new rules to govern competitions of figure and speed skating.

Officers were re-elected as follows: President, Harry Buermeyer of the New York Athletic Club; vice-president, Jerome Karst, St. Louis Skating Club; secretary-treasurer, Francis M. Clarke, Westchester Skating Club.

Sanctions for the national championships and other meetings were awarded. The National indoor championship was scheduled for the Duquesne rink, Pittsburgh, Pa.; National outdoor championship, at Verona Lake, N. Y. The Illinois outdoor championship goes to Chicago.

Practically every skating organization in the country had a delegate present or was represented by a proxy.

AND NOW COMES SHARKEY.

SAYS HE FEELS SO GOOD THAT HE MUST FIGHT
CORBETT.

Back to the strenuous life comes Sharkey. The fighting sailor has seen enough of the simple life that knows no punches nor knockouts, and he pines for the padded ring and excitement of mitt swinging. After he fought Munroe, he "retired," as all pugilists have done, and he has kept his resolve longer than his friends thought and no smaller fight for Sharkey, either. He seeks a match with no less a person than his old-time rival, Jim Corbett.

"I have been feeling in such great shape the past couple months that I am anxious to get back into the game and see what I can do," said Sharkey. "I have followed the fellows who think they are fighters," said Sharkey. "I think I can show a few of them that they should be in the red ink and not me." Tell Corbett for me that I am anxious to fight him, and if he can beat me, then he can talk business with Jeffries.

TELLS WHY SHE SENT CHILD AWAY

In answer to the published statement of her mother-in-law from whom Mrs. Celia Killian of 1330 Broadway forcibly took her child on the street a few days since, Mrs. Killian has written the following:

"EDITOR TRIBUNE.—It is true that I sent my child in care of a Mrs. O'Brien to my mother-in-law's, but as to my saying, 'not to send the child back as I want it to forget me,' is untrue. I was compelled to send my child somewhere as my husband was off on one of his noted drunks, and such being the case, left me in hard circumstances. And as for my telling my mother-in-law to the side-walk, it is a prevarication on her part.

"MRS. CELIA KILLIAN.

MINSTREL SHOW PLANNED BY THE RELIANCE CLUB.

WALTER FAWCETT

STANLEY MAY BE MADE MANAGER.

There is just a possibility that good old Matt Stanley will be a manager next year. Despite the report sent out that Jack Doyle of National League fame, has been signed to manage Spokane, there is a strong feeling in that city in favor of putting Stanley in charge of the team. Matt played good ball there last year, until his hands got so badly damaged that he could hardly hold a ball. His hands were in terrible shape when he went to help out Dugdale in Portland, and he should never have been in the game at all. Some of his friends in Seattle thought they saw a falling off in the veteran's work, and talked about him being all in, but when it is considered that three fingers on his right hand were split to the bone, it is small wonder that his throwing was not up to the usual high standard. He will be behind the bat with some team as usual next year, and as he will be in fine shape, his work will be high class, as it has always been since he has been in baseball. If Matt is placed in charge of the Spokane team he will have hundreds of fans pulling for Spokane to win, just on his account.

John McCloskey is now doing his annual business for insurance in the Pacific National League. He wants to buy the Butte franchise, but he and Wilcox cannot agree on terms. Wilcox is a dead one in Butte and he knows it, but he will not get out until he gets back some of the good money he tossed off there last year. He has fifteen players under reserve, and he wants to call their releases for a bunch of coin. He sold Ward to Birmingham last year. Swindells to St. Louis and Shaffer to Butte. He still has under reserve Pate Dowling, Egan, Vashinger, Sporer, Skelton, Bandelin and Kewell, pitchers; Stub Spence, catcher; Huber, second base; Kunkle, short stop; McNamee and Kane.

According to Ben C. Ely the release given Louis Castro by D. E. Dugdale as manager of the Portland Baseball Club during the 1904 season was not worth the paper it was written on. Mr. Ely avers that while Dugdale had a right to sign a dead man in Butte and he knows it, but he did not care to retain on the team. "I still maintain that Castro can be held on the Portland reserve list," said Mr. Ely. "While I have not had a talk with Mr. McCloskey regarding the matter, I feel sure that he thinks as I do in this matter and that he will be able to make Kansas City pay for the infielder. Would any man consider himself discharged because the office boy said so? Not a bit of it. And it was the same case with Mr. Dugdale. According to resolutions passed by all of the minor leagues the dismissals by managers were not considered authentic unless approved by the directors. I beg and other players refused to take their release from Mr. Dugdale, and I do not think that Castro can expect to consider himself released."

Manager McCloskey has arranged a deal with Charlie Frank, manager of the New Orleans team, whereby Portland secures the crack shortstop Herman Atz in exchange for Ernie Beebe. Frank at first refused to part with Atz but finally Beck's popularity in the South prevailed and the deal was made. By the trade McCloskey secures a man who is rated as one of the finest shortstops in the country, and is also a good stickler, having batted .350 last season.

"Good players are going to be scarce next year," remarks George Hodson, the little man who pitched for San Francisco two years ago. "There are so many leagues in the country now that a fellow who can play ball a little bit can get plenty of offers. From what I can see the Pacific Coast League is as badly up against it as any of the leagues. Before I went into organized baseball it could dicker with any player it wanted. Now it is different. Managers must go out and buy their talent and take chances of getting their money's worth. They must pay $500 if they draft a man from another league, and run risks of him making good."

"I see where Russ Hall and Pete Lohman have advertisements in Eastern baseball weeklies for men. This shows that talent is scarce. I have a man in mind whom I think he could land. His name is Jack Thornton, and he played with Colorado Springs last year. He is a big fellow and capital player in every way. The last time I heard from him he had not signed for next season."

"Where will you play next season?" the little pitcher was asked. "No," answered Huddle, laughing. "I am out of baseball for good. I am now peddling life insurance and like my work. My company tells me that I am doing good work for a beginner, and I mean to stick to it."

"It is a Fitzsimmons retirement? Go in, and then come out?" "No," answered Huddle, laughing. "I am out of baseball for good. I am now peddling life insurance and like my work. My company tells me that I am doing good work for a beginner, and I mean to stick to it."

LOCAL TEAM IS SULLIVAN AND WELCH.

SAN FRANCISCO BOWLERS BEST IN FIRST GAMES ROLLED.

A bowling team composed of H. Burke, Ed Peck and G. E. Burke rolled a match game with a team composed of L. G. Parker, J. Donahue and Dr. Merrill on all-ways across the bay last evening. The San Francisco team won out by 242 pins. A return match will be held on the Syndicate alleys next Thursday.

The Oakland Wheelmen defeated the Wolves in one of the inter-city match tournament games last evening on the Syndicate alleys. The wheelmen took two of the three games rolled.

Some men waste a lot of valuable time explaining their actions.

THIS PAIR WILL STRENGTHEN THE NEIL-HYLAND CON-TEST.

Matchmaker Greggins of the San Francisco Club last night announced that he had improved the Neil-Hyland card by arranging with "Twin" Sullivan and "Spider" Welch to box ten rounds at 138 pounds, and with Joe Angell and Jack Cardell to appear in a ten-round preliminary at 125 pounds.

"MORE ANON." Some correspondents close their letters with "more anon." They seek to convey the idea that they will write additional good by and by. But "anon" means "immediately," and not "when the spirit moves me."—New York Press.

Committee Appointed and Novel Features Proposed.

Plans for the minstrel show to be given by the Reliance Club are being made by the committee in charge, Walter Fawcett, Edwin Stearns, Paul J. Schaeffer and P. H. Rosenheim.

At first it was proposed to give an indoor circus, but after some consideration this idea was cast aside and the minstrel show chosen.

While the entertainment will be in the nature of a black cork show, many novel features not seen in the usual affair will be provided.

Talent from San Francisco will assist and performers in local theaters will be present. The club members will provide a good part of the program. There will be boxing bouts, wrestling matches, fencing contests and other gymnasium sports. The first part of the program promises to be something novel. The arrangement of this feature has been left in the hands of Edwin Stearns and he is bound to furnish an original effort. The exact nature of the first part has not been fully decided upon by Mr. Stearns, but from present plans it will be something never seen on a minstrel stage, but will be so good that a copyright will be necessary to protect it from going on the professional circuit.

The big gymnasium in the Reliance Club will be arranged in the form of an amphitheater, and thus every seat in the house will afford a good view of the performance.

The exact date for the show has not as yet been fixed, but will probably be set for the 1st of February.

TIP O'NEILL CHOSEN FOR PRESIDENCY.

Tip O'Neill of this city has been chosen as president of the Western League of Baseball Clubs, as was intimated in THE TRIBUNE some time ago.

The magnates of the Western League held a meeting at Omaha yesterday and at the conference, Tip was selected to head the organization.

The selection of Tip O'Neill to direct the affairs of the Western League is a wise move on behalf of the magnates for no one has a more thorough knowledge of plays and players than Tip. He has followed baseball ever since he was able to gaze through a knot-hole in the fence. He is a thorough student of the dope and right now knows where there are more good free players than anybody on this coast.

With his knowledge of the game, no doubt Tip will make the Western League a complete success. The finances of the association are in good condition and at the meeting of the magnates yesterday the league was made more substantial by dropping the non-paying clubs.

The berth is worth about $500 a month to Tip. He is a willing worker in the interests of baseball and will earn every cent of his pay check. The local fans are glad that Tip received the appointment, for there is no more popular a person than he in this neck of land. Tip has to settle up his personal affairs here and then he will depart to assume control of his league.

Dick Boettger, a member of the championship baseball team of the Berkeley High School and who, since graduation, has been playing professional ball, has signed as catcher for the Portland team. Boettger has played in the Pacific Coast League before, having been a member of the Oakland team.

If the National Commission opens the draft again and takes players from the Tacoma team as threatened, there will be a merry war on. Last night President Bert of the Pacific Coast League sent the following telegram to "Garry" Herrman, chairman of the National Commission:

"The Coast League will positively not stand for any more drafting. We joined the National Association in good faith and will demand a square deal. Do not want to appear arbitrary, but if commission insists upon reopening drafting season, we will be 'outlaws' again."

WILL CHALLENGE RICHMOND NEWS J. BRITT.

LEW POWELL WILL ISSUE A DEF-TO NATIVE SON IF HE WINS.

There will be some very lively "scrapping" in Woodward's Pavilion to-night, under Hayes Valley Club auspices. Seven four-round bouts are scheduled. Three special events are on the program.

Lew Powell will meet Young Choyinski. If Powell wins, he will enter the professional ranks and ask fights with Britt, Young Corbett, Nelson, and others. Powell has great confidence in himself. Young Choyinski promises his friends that he will relieve Powell of that feeling when he gets him within the ropes to-night.

Frank Mayfield and Joe Thomas will contest for welterweight honors. Mayfield is a newcomer in the ranks and is a good one. He beat Joe Kelly last month in a decisive manner. Whether he can stop cool-headed and hard-hitting Joe Thomas remains to be seen.

Abe Label and "Southside" Jack O'Brien will box four rounds. This will be the fifth meeting between the pair. They have earned decisions over each other, but the question of supremacy has never been settled.

Willie Edwards meets Jack Bradshaw at 115 pounds; Charlie Johnson fights Frank Smith at 105 pounds; Sam Wheat Duff will box Jack McDonald at 125 pounds. "Jimmy" McDewitt will referee the bouts.

FORESTERS INSTALL OFFICERS—
PERSONAL AND SOCIAL MENTION.

RICHMOND, January 13. — Officers were installed Tuesday evening by Court Richmond, No. 3819, Ancient Order of Foresters, as follows:

Past chief ranger, John L. McCarthy; chief ranger, J. L. Rhin; sub chief ranger, E. E. Scholes; recording secretary, G. M. Kinney; financial secretary, O. L. Wright; treasurer, G. G. Amason; senior woodward, E. P. Benton; junior woodward, A. Purdy; senior beadle, D. H. Baker; junior beadle, J. De Barrows. T. H. Easley, D. H. C. R. was the installing officer.

ELECT OFFICERS. The local lodge of the Boilemachers' and Iron Shipbuilders' Union elected and installed the following officers last Tuesday evening:

President, M. Wynn; vice president, P. Satterbloom; financial secretary, William O. Parks; recording secretary, E. E. Duncan; corresponding secretary, J. P. Cool; treasurer, J. Logan; inspector, J. Foley; guard, G. Armstrong.

ADAM ANDREW STAKES.

THIS IS THE FEATURE ON THE LOCAL TRACK TO-MORROW.

The feature event of the week will be run on the local track tomorrow. The Adam Andrew selling stakes with $2,000 added is a nice little affair to capture and the best of the sprinting bunch will face the barrier.

Jockey Eugene Hildebrand is in San Francisco. He came up from Los Angeles to attend the funeral of a sister. He will probably be seen on the local track piloting winners.

The handicapper had the mounts well placed in the mile and fifty yards handicap yesterday. It was a wide open betting proposition with Ara closing as a lukewarm favorite at 14 to 5. Davis brought Yada through with a rush and won by a hair's length from Sea, Jr. Lady Goodrich was a close third.

Martindale, a 2 to 5 choice, took the seven-furlong purse. The gelding was in the running all the time and won easily.

There are some men on the race track who have not the gambling spirit, but go along in the even tenor of their way, making a business of the game.

These are the system players, and such a one is Nin S. Hand, who resembles a country Methodist circuit rider more than he does the follower of the race course.

Hand is an expert accountant and some few years ago held a responsible and good-paying position in a Chicago bank. He became acquainted with a horse owner who is now racing at Oakland, and was induced to put down a wager of a couple of hundred dollars. He won quickly at Hand, and had the same success again only a few days later.

He concluded that the racing game was too easy and immediately quit his job in the bank to become a regular. The result was the inevitable and it came quickly to Hand. In a few months his bank roll was gone and his home was mortgaged.

Then his head for figures came into play, and he got busy with charts and tables and evolved a system that would win what he wanted to borrow a fresh bank roll to do business with.

Whether his system was any good or not, he has been in the game ever since and has gained for himself the name of one of the most expert handicappers in the country.

"Speaking of tipsters and their ways, an amusing thing happened here in New York a few years ago in which one of them figured. De la Bruere, a young man with strong sporting proclivities lost his position in a well-known business firm through an enforced reduction of expenses and found it a hard matter to connect with another house. His resources were pretty soon exhausted and he turned to the tipping business.

"His last four dollars were spent for an advertisement—using an assumed name, of course—which was novel among the class of ads then in vogue. He represented himself as being in New York to place commissions for a big racing stable at Chicago. He asked no money in advance, but wanted his subscribers to send him the winnings from a stated amount wagered on each race. He asked them to make it strong by requesting that his selections not be played in the section bounded by Twenty-third and Forty-second streets and Fifth and Eighth avenues, intimating that he wanted that territory reserved for his own speculation.

"The subscribers, however, naturally, at the terms, and then proceeded to do up a couple of horses to send his subscribers. Thrive was one of the good ones running at Chicago then and she was selected. But as she was almost sure to be a favorite he wanted to offset this by sending a long shot and selected Floridan because he had remembered his winning at Oakland the previous winter. So Thrive and Floridan were sent out as the horses on which he was expected to bet big money for his Western employers.

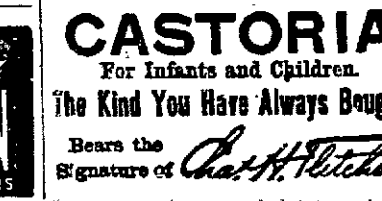

"During the afternoon he wandered into a poolroom not a hundred miles from Broadway and Forty-second street. The first man to greet him was an old friend whom he had known for years and who had been one of the applicants for the selections.

"Hello, old man," was the greeting of the friend, "glad to see you, for I have two of the best things of the season," and he proceeded to spring the tipster's own tips on him. "These are the real thing," he explained, "and I am going to get my vacation expenses out of them. I got them from the agent of the owner, and I know I am right, a time when he was expected to bet nothing to do with the tips, didn't believe in them and all that sort of stuff."

"Thrive's race came first and she won at 8 to 5. Then the man who had received the tips came around again and begged the man who sent them to have a bet on Floridan, but he couldn't see it. Floridan was to 1 to 1, got away flying and held on long enough to win by a nose.

"There you bankety, blank chump!" cried the tipster's friend, at the same time giving him a chug in the back that almost knocked him down. "I guess the next time I give you a straight tip you'll pay some attention to it."

THE WONDERFUL REGAL SALE

THE Bargain Sale in Regals lasts each year from January 1st to December 31st. During that time we sell $6 shoes at $3.50.

This is not a result of "trade pranks," "factory experiments," "removals," or "fires." It is a result of the wonderful Regal Tannery-to-Consumer System which does away with every profit but the small one you pay the manufacturer.

This continuous Regal Sale moves the shoes from Regal Stores so fast that there is an entire change of stock every fortnight—fresh shoes, the newest styles just as fast as they are approved in the fashion centers.

Here's a model that we warrant you won't find on any "marked-down" bargain counter, because it's a style just adopted in London.

TIVOLI COMPANY SCORES A SUCCESS AT THE MACDONOUGH.

MISS DORA DE PHILIPPE WITH THE TIVOLI COMPANY.

The famous Tivoli Opera Company in its entirety with the full chorus, all of the principals and the Tivoli orchestra under the leadership of Paul Storch and with the full wealth of the splendid production of their most recent success at the home theatre, appeared at the Macdonough Theatre last night in the great Pixley-Luders comic opera "King Dodo."

All of music-loving people as well as a generous sprinkling of the regular patrons of the house were there and hearty bursts of applause showed conclusively that the opera was thoroughly appreciated and that such visits from the Tivoli company would be welcomed more frequently in the future.

It is a tribute to the intelligence of local play-goers that such an excellent quality of musical comedy is so thoroughly appreciated and that a stock company from our nearest neighbor can so well compete with the shows that present the same class of amusement with the reputation of a long run in the Eastern cities. The production of "King Dodo" is as complete as any seen at a local theatre and is worthy of the patronage of all theatre-goers.

Last night the principals were all in splendid voice and the chorus sang the ensemble numbers very cleverly. They wore some beautiful costumes. The scenic effects were fully up to the high standard of all Tivoli productions. "King Dodo" will be repeated every evening up to and including Sunday with the usual popular matinee on Saturday and Sunday. Monday and Tuesday there will be a change of bill.

WOMEN IN COURT TELL OF THEIR FIGHT.
Albertine Gambier and Rose Jaeger Relate Story of Sanguinary Struggle.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—Two women retold in Justice Edgar's court this morning the story of their fierce squabble over a pug dog, belonging to it was alleged, to Mrs. Rose Jaeger or to Miss Albertine Gambier—just which remained for the judge to decide.

Mrs. Jaeger had been arrested at the instance of Miss Gambier, charged with battery. She was declared to have met Miss Gambier's request for a pug dog, said to have been left in her care, with a broomstick movement on the Gambier woman's head. The ear of the young woman attacked was the principal organ to suffer. It was lacerated and almost torn from the Gambier woman's head. Stitches in it were taken by Dr. McLaren of San Francisco. Miss Gambier appeared in court with the member bandaged but with her tongue intact and prepared to work overtime.

Both women are French, voluble, energetic, and decidedly opposed to each other. Miss Gambier is a lodging house keeper at 515 Kearney street in San Francisco. Mrs. Jaeger resides on San Pablo avenue. To the latter's house came Miss Gambier last Wednesday to recover a pet pug dog left with the Jaeger woman. The wordy altercation that followed had for its climax the sensational rush with a broomstick upon the visitor—just which Gambier's story was to be believed.

Mrs. Jaeger told a different tale of being attacked by Miss Gambier and her male escort, and of defending herself from their attacks in any way she could. The pug dog was alleged to be the smallest part of the affair, though its ownership was denied to be Miss Gambier's.

ITCHING ECZEMA

In July, 1893, I began to break out with Eczema on my head, legs and arms, and began treatment with local doctors, but did not get much relief. They said the disease had become chronic. I then quit them and tried various ointments and soaps for another two years, but as soon as cold weather came I was as bad off as ever, so I finally decided to let medicine alone, and for twelve or thirteen years did nothing towards curing the Eczema, except bathing. This seemed to do about as much good as anything I had tried.

During the time I lost about one-half of my hair. I began S. S. S. doubtful of a cure, because the disease had run so long, but soon discovered your medicine was doing me good, and continued to take it. I used seven bottles, when I was completely cured, not having a single spot on my body, which before was almost completely covered. F. C. NORFOLK.

107 Hackberry St., Ottumwa, Ia.

The head, feet and hands are usually the parts affected, though the disease appears on other parts of the body. While external applications allay the itching and burning temporarily, it is the acids thrown off by the blood that cause the irritation and eruptions upon the skin. The acids must be neutralized and the system cleansed of all humors and poisons before the cure is permanent.

S. S. S. is guaranteed entirely free of Potash, Arsenic and other minerals. It cleans the skin and its diseases sent free.

Medical advice furnished free.

REGISTRATION DAY AT UNIVERSITY.

PROGRAM TO BE OBSERVED BY CANDIDATES FOR ADMISSION TO COLLEGES.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—Registration day for all university students comes next Monday. Instruction is to be commenced Monday afternoon.

Matriculation examinations were held to-day in room 18 North Hall, Berkeley, for the academic colleges, Hastings College of Law and the medical department.

The program on Monday is to be as follows: Monday, January 16th, from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.—Registration day at the gymnasium—Registration of graduates and undergraduate students for courses of the second half year. Students entering the university in January, and students who were not in attendance during the first half-year, will be registered at the registrar's office in South Hall. Students who elect courses beginning on Monday afternoon must register before 10 o'clock p. m. in registration of undergraduates after Monday will be permitted only in cases where the students have been granted leave of absence by the proper faculty or department.

Monday, January 16th, 1 p. m.—Instruction in all classes begin. Students must obtain the recorder's certificate of registration in time to appear for enrollment by the instructor at the first meeting in each of the courses.

RIS LECTURE ON "OUR TOMORROW"

At Reed Hall, Harrison street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth, next Monday, at 8 p. m., Jacob Ris will speak on "Tony's Hardships," dealing with the problems of the city street boy. It is the story of the street arab who "throws stones" and the success of the efforts to tame him; the most fascinating presentation of the fight for "our tomorrow" as Mr. Ris puts it. "Our tomorrow" is upon it rests the stability of the republic. Mr. Ris speaks not from notes, but from his heart, his heart and his hands; so rapidly, so fluently do the thoughts come that the words fairly tumble over each other and from an apparently inexhaustible font of supply. The man himself with his simple modesty, his quick humor, his magnificent enthusiasm, his overflowing humanity, is a personality which will never be forgotten by anyone fortunate enough to hear him speak. Tickets (fifty cents) are on sale at Sherman and Clay's.

BUZZ OF TONGUES.

Entire Town Talking of License Ordinance Muddle.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—The town is discussing the present situation in which the government of Berkeley has found itself, since Town Attorney Hayne's declaration that the license ordinance is unconstitutional.

The opinion was rendered in the case of E. P. Carlson, arrested for peddling without a license. He was discharged yesterday by Justice Edgar, when Hayne made a motion to that effect, and in addition, gave his opinion of the unconstitutionality of the town's license ordinance.

The clause in the constitution of California which renders the town ordinance unconstitutional, is in Section 11, Article XI, and is as follows: "Any county, city, town or township may make and enforce within its limits all such local police, sanitary and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws."

In the general police regulations and laws, there is a clause declaring all reasonable ordinance and laws invalid. The license ordinance is held by Hayne to be unreasonable because it says that men shall be arrested who peddle without a license and yet let a certain class of men, those possessing gratuitous licenses, go free.

The particular section which was declared unconstitutional by the Town Attorney, Section 1, is as follows:

"Gratuities licenses may be issued by the Town Clerk when ordered by the Board of Trustees in the same manner as other licenses are issued, subject to the conditions of this section and as follows:

(a) To any person, who upon proper showing to the Board of Trustees, is entitled to merit exemption from the provisions of any section here.

(b) All applications for free licenses shall be made in writing, signed by the applicant, and shall state where the applicant has resided for the six months immediately prior to the filing of such application.

(c) All free licenses may be granted for any period of time not to exceed one year; provided, that they shall be dated to expire at the end of regular term.

(d) Any license granted by the Board of Trustees under this section may be revoked at any time by the said Board, and the License Collector shall enter such revocation on his records upon due notice thereof.

(e) No gratuitous license shall be assignable.

The ordinance went into force on June 22, 1904.

This same clause, relating to the issuance of free licenses, thus making a discrimination, which is unconstitutional, is believed to exist in the charter and ordinances of many other towns throughout California. Marysville and Chico have such a clause among their ordinances, and it is almost certain that Santa Cruz has one as well. If this case should be carried to the Superior Court, it would mean that all similar ordinances in other towns would be rendered invalid.

CROWD AT RECITAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Gutterson Entertain Many Guests.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—The last of the three musical recitals at "Alameda," where Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Gutterson have entertained their friends was given Tuesday evening.

The program was of unusual charm and artistic merit. The first number was a group of Richard Strauss' compositions, splendidly interpreted by the combined richness of violin and piano so wonderfully responsive beneath the artistic touch of Mr. Gutterson and Mrs. Gutterson.

The second, two selections from Chopin, "Impromptu in F-sharp" and a "Scherzo B-flat minor," were given by Mr. Gutterson without any cello accompaniment, and were exquisite.

The closing number was a duet "Variation Symphoniques" (Boellman), brilliantly given.

Several hundred guests filled the beautiful rooms against a background of greens and trailing vines.

Among the many were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Day, Miss Carol Day, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allard, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Anson S. Blake, Colonel and Mrs. John P. Irish, Miss Frances Irish, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Olney, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keller, Mrs. Frank Howard Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Hunt, Professor and Mrs. Edward B. Clapp, Professor and Mrs. E. J. Wickson, Miss Wickson, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. William James Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Manchester, Mr. Fred Morrow, and Mrs. Edmund Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Maurer, Mrs. V. D. Moody, Miss Blossom, Professor and Mrs. N. H. Drexler, Miss Fanny Blossom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martinson, Mrs. Selma E. Woodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Bray and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Salt.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB HOLDS A MEETING.

BERKELEY, January 12.—The West End Improvement Club held a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting last night in Wolf's hall. A fine representation of the club's membership was present, and various questions, pertinent to the object of the club were discussed, ably and at length by some of the brightest men in the city.

Meetings of the West End Improvement Club hereafter are to be held on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month.

PLAN FINE NEW CLUB.

Athletic Exercises to Be Feature of Coming Institution.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—A new social club that shall also embrace features of a moderate athletic club is the latest enterprise to be begun by well known men of the university town.

Arrangements are now being made to place the organization on an active basis by March. The club will be primarily for men, but an interesting clause in the constitution, now being drafted, gives associate membership to the wives and sisters of its members, their dues being half that charged the men.

Differing from any of the other clubs already in existence in the college town, the new club will make a specialty of athletic pastimes. It is planned to lease a good-sized house entire, and secure the use of adjoining grounds, on which tennis and handball courts will be built, and possibly bowling alleys placed.

The club is not named at present, although a committee is now working to that end. The membership consists of forty-four already, with a list of much more than that number yet to be passed upon. Its aims are to open the way to membership to all business and professional men in Berkeley, the only exception being against undergraduates in the university.

The board of directors contains men well known in Berkeley. W. A. Cameron is chairman and McCullough Graydon, secretary-treasurer. Other members on the board of directors are William A. Powell, Dr. Thomas C. McCleave, Professor P. R. Boone and Dr. L. L. Green.

CASE OF SMALLPOX REPORTED IN ALAMEDA.

First in Many Months and the Health Officers Quarantine the House.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—A case of small-pox, the first to develop here in many months has been reported to the Health Officer. The victim is A. R. McCausland, a young man who came here recently from Denver, and who resides at 1233 Park avenue. He has been a student at a local institution. The Board of Health has quarantined the house where he resides, and will use every endeavor to prevent the spread of contagion.

TAPPED ON WINDOWS.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—Mrs. J. A. Waymire of Walnut street and Buena Vista avenue telephoned to the Alameda police that some one was tapping on her windows. She lives in a lonely part of the city and feared burglars were trying to break into her home. Patrolman Theodore Anderson was sent to investigate the affair, but could find no trace of the supposed miscreant, and it is believed that a window pane rattling in the wind caused the scare.

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—An enjoyable affair was the "300" party given by Miss Minna Conger at her home, 1828 Clinton avenue. Miss Willow Butler was the guest of honor, the affair being in the nature of a farewell, as she is to depart shortly for a visit to relatives in the Eastern States.

THE TIDDALE TEA.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—One of the very pleasant affairs of the week was the tea given by Miss Deane Tisdale in honor of Miss Willow Butler, who has been the recipient of numerous social courtesies prior to her departure to the East. Fifty guests were present during the afternoon at the Tisdale residence, the hostess being assisted in receiving by Mrs. Charles L. Tisdale, Miss Blanche Tisdale, Miss Ruth Tisdale, Miss Minna Conger, Miss Carolyn Gerald, Miss Rena Scott, and Miss Elsie Horton.

Among the guests were: Miss Vera Cope, Miss Carolyn Hall, Miss Hazel Holt, Miss Sadie Alexander, Miss Adelle Elvengren, Misses George, Miss Marjorie Edgington, Miss Edith White, Miss Cecile Harold, Miss Edna Siegfried, Miss Edna Rue, Miss Benite Victor, Miss Hilda Van Sicken, Miss Doris Henn, Misses Becker, Miss Edith Foster, Mrs. Robert B. Valteau, Miss Bessie Valteau.

ARRESTED IN SAN FRANCISCO.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—Burton Woodworth of 1183 Ninth street, on an embezzlement charge preferred by the manager of the Crescent Loan Company across the bay, by whom he was employed. Woodworth was formerly with Sloane's furniture store in the city. He has a wife and three children.

DEATH OF MRS. FOUCHY.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Rosalie Charlotte Fouchy died yesterday at the family residence, 834 Santa Clara avenue. Deceased was a native of France, aged 67 years. Death was due to an attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Fouchy came to this country from France in 1870, landing at Boston, and came to California in 1886. Eight years ago she came here to reside. Her husband died many years ago in France. She leaves three children, two sons and a daughter. One of the sons is in Manitoba, the other being Dr. Fouchy of this city. Mrs. Fouchy's daughter is Mrs. Celine Lame of San Francisco.

Mrs. Fouchy was in Paris during the Commune and during the siege of the capital by the Russians. Her funeral will take place on Sunday.

ATKINS-TABOR.

ALAMEDA, January 13.—Mrs. Bessie Atkins, nee Miss Bessie Meserole, was married in San Francisco Wednesday evening to Edwin B. Tabor of the jewelry firm of Tabor Brothers, across the bay. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Meserole. Rev. Frank Stewart Ford of the First Christian Church, officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Meserole, while the best man was William A. Stewart. Mrs. Tabor has many friends in this city, where she formerly made her home.

ANNUAL MEETING.

ALAMEDA, January 13.—The annual meeting of the Cooper Ornithological Club, which has quite a number of members in this city, Oakland, and Berkeley, will be held tomorrow night in San Francisco, when a banquet is to be held at Jules' restaurant. The annual election of officers will take place, and some interesting addresses will be delivered by prominent bird students.

PUPILS ENROLLED.

ALAMEDA, January 13.—Fred T. Moore, City Superintendent of Schools, has reported the enrollment in the grammar schools since the opening of the new term to be as follows: Haight School, 615; Longfellow, 594; Mastick, 649; Porter, 473; Wilson, 379; Haight School 385.

The enrollment in the Eligh School exceeds that of last term by forty pupils.

The question has been agitated for some time among the players of the club, not a few of whom are really expert performers with the cue. It is expected that only members will com-

PAINEFUL SCIATICA

EVERY SUFFERER WANTS THE VERY QUICKEST CURE.

Mr. Donovan Thinks the Remedy Used By Him With Such Remarkable Success the Best—Cured by Five Boxes.

"Men who have to do difficult and dangerous work on electric lines at any hour of day or night, can't afford to have anything the matter with their health," said Mr. Donovan, "particularly anything that interferes with the freedom of their movements. You can imagine, therefore, how much I was alarmed one winter's day in 1902 when I was seized by a pain just behind my right hip that made it difficult for me to walk home. It was so bad and had made me so weak by the time I reached the house that I was obliged to go straight to bed."

"Did that relieve you?" "No, the pain grew more severe and kept extending downward along my leg. I sent for a physician, and he soon decided that I had a very severe attack of sciatica. In a very few days the whole nerve was affected, and I could not turn over or even move in bed, for the least movement brought on terrible agony."

"Did your condition improve under the doctor's treatment?" "Quite the contrary. His medicines did not seem to help me at all. At the end of two months I wasn't a bit better, and at times I was thoroughly discouraged. I feared that I would never be able to leave my bed."

"How did you get out again?" "Because I was willing to be guided by the experience of some people who had been cured of sciatica without the aid of a doctor. When I was lying in bed, unable to move and wasting away in flesh because I had no appetite, a friend visited me and told me about the wonderful cures brought about by a great blood and nerve remedy, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He strongly urged me to try them, and I luckily had sense enough to take his advice. Then I began to get well."

"Did you mend quickly?" "Yes, that was the astonishing thing. I noticed a slight improvement before I had quite finished the first box of the pills. I could get out of bed while I was on the third box, and I was entirely cured by the time I had taken five boxes. I think I am permanently cured, for I have never had the slightest return of the trouble since. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills first drove the terrible pains away."

Mr. Joseph A. Donovan is living at Plaislow, New Hampshire, and is line inspector for the Haverhill, Newton & Plaislow Electric Street Railway. The remedy to which he owes his quick release from the tortures of sciatica has a world-wide reputation for purifying and enriching the blood. When the blood that feeds the nerves is sound and abundant the nerves themselves grow healthy and strong.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the remedy to use when the blood is thin, as in anemia; or impure, as in rheumatism, or when the nerves are weak, as in neuralgia; or lifeless, as in partial paralysis; or when the body as a whole is ill-nourished, as in general debility. When the nerves ache and tremble. It means they are starving. The only way to feed them is through the blood, and the best food is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are sold by all druggists.

BOULEVARD WORK PROGRESSES.

WORKMEN HAVE PASSED THE SAN LORENZO JUNCTION—ELMHURST NOTES.

ELMHURST, January 13.—Work on the new boulevard is progressing rapidly. The workmen have passed the San Lorenzo junction nearly a mile in the direction of Haywards. The construction began at Elmhurst.

Seven new scrapers passed through here yesterday on the way to the front.

Miss Kate Gray is ill with a gripe at her home on the corner of Third street and Jones avenue.

Elmhurst Lodge, No. 284, I. O. O. F. installed officers last night at Red Men's Hall. The ceremony was followed by a banquet.

The previous custom of holding an open installation jointly with the Rebekahs was discontinued. The latter lodge will install tomorrow evening.

J. McReynolds of Oakland has bought a half interest in the Elmhurst branch of the Log Cabin Bakery of C. S. Alvord.

T. E. Hooper, a well known orchardist of this place, is seriously ill at his home on Orchard avenue.

Nealon Gray spent yesterday morning in San Francisco purchasing drugs.

Mrs. Bertha Covell, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. George Karmen, on Jones avenue for the last three weeks, will depart tomorrow for her home at Boulder creek.

BANK OPEN NIGHT AS WELL AS DAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—With the acquisition of a $900,000 site at the corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-fourth street, a district of fashionable restaurants and hotels, the directors of the First Night Bank have completed plans for opening that unique institution probably within a few months. The bank, which will be open, together with its safety deposit vaults, day and night, will have a capital of $200,000 and surplus of $500,000.

In connection with the purchase of a site for the bank it is related that the property has changed hands twice within a year, netting a profit to the sellers in that short period of $500,000.

COMEDIAN DIES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Harvey Grosvener Forbes Curtis, a well-known character comedian who two years ago married Louise Cutler Francis, niece of the late Mark Twain, is dead at St. Luke's Hospital from heart trouble. He had been on the stage twenty-three years, and had appeared in support of many well-known stars.

TO TRY A BURLESQUE

Sophomores Plan Production at Macdonough Theater.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—Manuscripts for the Sophomore Burlesque have arrived and as soon as college opens the committee managing the dramatic venture will meet and decide which is to be presented.

The production will be given by members of the Sophomore class at the Macdonough Theater in Oakland February 17th. It is to be coached by Milton Schwartz, whose success at staging amateur productions at the University has attracted much attention, and the college talent looks for a worthy class attempt.

Robert Van Sant, chairman of the committee, expects about six manuscripts, some of which are already in his hands and when the contest closes, January 18th, he will call his committee together and in two days the name of the successful contestant will be announced.

As the burlesque is to be the first dramatic event of the term much college interest has been aroused. The class expects to expend several hundred dollars in staging its production and bids are now being made for seats as soon as they are put on sale.

The Sophomores have initiated a departure in college affairs by giving a burlesque.

Heretofore the class has always given a minstrel show but at the end of last term it was voted by the '07 class to give something different. Minstrel shows, farces, comic operas and attempts at legitimate drama have been doled out year after year by the students with monotonous regularity. To depart from the regular program and give a burlesque was suggested by Van Sant and the class supported the idea.

The cast will be chosen immediately after the contest closes.

WHIST TOURNAMENT PRISONER SETS CELL AFIRE.

FRUITVALE CLUB HOLDS MEETING—OFFICERS HAVE CLEW.

FRUITVALE, January 13.—The monthly tournament of the Fruitvale Whist club occurred Wednesday night at St. Elizabeth's hall on Bray avenue. The attendance was large and a very pleasant evening was spent. Refreshments were served.

The members, who nearly all are of the Catholic congregation, had prettily decorated the apartment in honor of the occasion. Smilax and trailing vines adorned the walls, and vases of flowers stood about on the tables.

CATARH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, flicker appetite, nervousness and a general pleated out, languid feeling.

There is often a bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a stinky, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritates the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To ward off prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harrison the safest and best treatment to use after each meal a tablet composed of Diastase, Aspicin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and they are a most effective medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago, Illinois, writes: "Catarh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, this producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I can not find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heart burn and bloating after meals.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

The Log Cabin Bakery was partially destroyed by fire on Nov. 4, 1904. Our capacity, equipment and best efforts were then overtaxed to supply our customers and considerable confusion ensued. These were very trying times for a bakery with a reputation to sustain, and notwithstanding our earnest endeavors to please, some of our customers were not served altogether satisfactorily.

The bakery has been rebuilt, new and modern machinery has been installed, and we are now making Log Cabin Bread better than ever—light, white and of exquisite flavor and freshness—still the largest and best loaf for 5 cents.

If you are not using Log Cabin Bread now, we ask you to please try our bread at our expense. Fill out the coupon in this notice and present to your bread dealer or at our bakery and receive a loaf free. Do this, please, and satisfy yourself that Log Cabin Bread is really the best bread it is possible to bake.

To those friends who stood by us during our troubles we are very thankful, and with the sincere wish that prosperity and blessings may be showered upon you during 1905, we are

MACHINISTS ARE BANQUETED.

WEST OAKLAND YARD EMPLOYEES HAVE PLEASANT EVENING.

WEST OAKLAND YARDS, Jan. 12.—Industrial Lodge No. 610, International Association of Machinists, which is entirely composed of employees of the machine shop here, held a banquet and installation of officers last Monday night at Fraternity Hall, Seventh and Pershing streets.

The banquet was one of the jolliest events that has taken place in many a day. About eighty local members were present besides several visiting members from other lodges of the association.

James Flynn, president of the lodge, acted as toastmaster to the satisfaction of all present.

After the banquet which was a bonanza affair, an impromptu program was enjoyed, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections, sketches, recitations, etc. C. Myers, of Lodge No. 88, San Francisco, and M. Dwyer, of the local lodge, made a doctored nut with a watermelon.

Without doubt the affair was one of the most successful ever given and all who attended were more than pleased with the result of the evening's merrymaking.

The following officers were installed:

James Flynn, president; F. Welban, vice-president; L. Stevenson, recording secretary; R. Fulton, financial secretary; W. W. Whitmore, treasurer; J. J. Fox, conductor; A. Stenrod, J. L. Barnes and Geo. Gowdwin, trustees.

PATRICK DOOLEY INJURED.
Patrick Dooley, a blacksmith's helper, suffered a severe injury yesterday while at his work. The handle of a hammer when he was using broke and a large piece flew up, striking him in the head, inflicting a superficial scalp wound.

While not serious, the injury was decidedly painful. The wound was dressed at the Emergency Hospital.

FOREMAN ILL.
Charles Erickson, foreman of the repair shop, is ill at his home. During his absence, Geo. Latham is attending to the work.

AT THE WAYS.
Work on the new Marine Ways is proceeding rapidly and they are now ready for work of any description. The oil and water tanks have been erected and hoists for the machinery mounted with the work being built. The work of dredging the channel is about completed and the dredge will shortly be taken back to the shipyard.

MEAT LITIGATION

San Francisco, January 12, 1905

Editor TRIBUNE—Dear Sir: In your paper of yesterday in the article headed, "Settle Suit By Compromise—Mrs. Scheithe Waives Damages and Meat Company Dismisses Appeal," are a number of misstatements which I would be pleased to have you correct. In the first place this proceeding was not against the California Co-operative Meat Company, but against Justice Quinn to compel him to issue execution on a judgment rendered in his court.

Second—The meat company did not dismiss their appeal yesterday or at any other time, but their appeal was dismissed on motion of plaintiff in another proceeding, on December 30, 1904, against the strenuous opposition of the meat company, on the ground that no proper service of the notice of appeal was made and that for that reason the Superior Court had no jurisdiction to entertain it.

Third—The action against Justice Quinn was not dismissed, but on the contrary judgment was rendered for Mrs. Scheithe on every point excepting the claim for damages, which was waived for the purpose of terminating a proceeding in which part of six days had already been spent in trial, and which threatened to consume part of several more. The proof of this is on file in the County Clerk's office in the findings of fact and conclusion of law, written by Judge Ellsworth.

Fourth—Judge Ellsworth did not hold that it was not in the province of a Justice of the Peace to inquire into the validity of a bond, and the claim of damages against Quinn was not dismissed, but waived by the plaintiff for the reason stated above. So far as the meat company being satisfied, it has already begun a suit in equity against Mrs. Scheithe to enjoin her from collecting on the judgment obtained in the Justice's Court and to compel her to transfer to the meat company the lease obtained by Mrs. Scheithe in his life-time. Yours truly,

A. BRUNNEN, Attorney for Mrs. Scheithe.

Hotterdash for sauce should be dried whole in a slow oven, and then rubbed on a grater kept for that special purpose. Prepared in this way the sauce is always smooth and good.

GREATEST MUSIC JOURNAL IN THE WORLD.

The Musical Courier of New York is the Leading Authority on Both Sides of the Atlantic.

If the average person were asked where the most complete, the most widely circulated and the most carefully edited musical journal was published his thoughts would naturally turn to such old world centers of musical culture as Paris, Berlin, Leipzig, Vienna, Milan and Naples, but they would be turned in the wrong direction. The musical journal of the world par excellence is the Musical Courier of New York, founded and edited by Marc A. Blumenberg, himself a musician of talent with a knowledge of musical technique and an acquaintance with musicians and musical matters that is cosmic.

The brilliant success achieved by the Courier, while a splendid testimonial to the journalistic skill and fairness of Mr. Blumenberg, bears striking evidence to the growth of musical culture in the United States and the wide interest taken in this country in this form of art; for it must be borne in mind that the Courier is not what is termed a popular publication. It is devoted solely to music and it is written for a musically educated circle of readers. It appeals to cultivated taste and addresses its attention to its higher and more perfectly developed forms of lyric art.

It does not even touch the drama when separated from lyric art. It has no connection with houses engaged in publishing music or the sale of musical instruments, nor with any conservatory of music. Its perfect independence in this respect coupled with the breadth and ability of its treatment of artists and composers, is one of the secrets of the extraordinary success it has achieved. Mr. Blumenberg says he discovered at the close of the Courier's first year that its future success in the field he desired it to hold depended upon absolutely divorcing the paper from everything save music.

The Courier is extensively taken and widely read in California, as Mr. Blumenberg has a large acquaintance with musicians on this coast. His wife is a Californian, an accomplished musician and a lady of many social gifts. She is known to many Oakland people, while the Courier is a welcome visitor to a number of Oakland homes.

Recently the Courier celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary, and in a lengthy review of its career, Mr. Blumenberg makes this apology for referring in a tone of pride to the enviable eminence his paper occupies in the musical world:

"The fact that, with newspapers and journals, it is customary to publish within their own columns articles and notes complimentary to themselves, does not make it bad taste, by no means establishes such precedent for good, but there is one very excellent reason why, if it were bad taste, it is excusable, and that is the fact that newspapers never speak well of one another, and that if a 'newspaper' wants justice, it must look for it in its own columns."

No better idea of what the position of the Musical Courier is can be conveyed than by quoting from Mr. Blumenberg's review:

"The white paper consumed by the Musical Courier in one edition amounts to more tons of paper than all other musical papers published on the globe use annually in reams. Our postage bill per week is more than the annual rent paid for all the offices used by all other musical papers on earth combined. What does this prove? That there is more actual and effective substantially paying activity in the American musical life than anywhere on the globe, notwithstanding the 500 debutante concerts per season in Berlin. All those debutantes are casting their glances over here, and everyone must read this paper to know what is progressing here. Our Berlin office is, therefore, one of our busy spots. A London office does not deal with that feature of musical work because London is not favored with so much debutantism; the more matured artist arrives in London; the one who has matured after Berlin. Such is also the case in Paris. But, notwithstanding all that activity, it is only here in America where such a paper as this can be made a success. It is here where the musicians can find the opportunities for reward, and hence they all either come here or are anxious to come. The reciprocity between musicians and this paper has brought about this condition. This paper is, therefore, and necessarily so, as well known in Europe as it is in America."

In the number containing Mr. Blumenberg's review are letters from all the musical centers of Europe and America, also a fine picture and a biographical sketch of the late Theodore Thomas. The frontispiece is an excellent portrait of Hugo Hermann, the eminent violinist. All the articles have the artistic flavor and are keyed in that spirit of sympathy with music and its votaries that only comes from the artistic temperament and the artistic atmosphere. The editor of the Courier can feel justly proud of the feat of making his journal the leading musical periodical of the world—an unquestioned authority on musical matters on both sides of the Atlantic.

COUNCIL SITS IN COMMITTEE.

RECOMMEND ORDINANCE PROHIBITING DAIRIES WEST OF ADELINE BE PASSED.

The Council committee met last night and transacted what routine business was before them. The most important measure recommended was the ordinance prohibiting the keeping of dairies west of Adeline street, within the city limits.

The ordinance raising the fine from a maximum of $100 to a maximum of $500 for carrying concealed weapons was recommended by the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

DAIRY ORDINANCE.
When the ordinance prohibiting more than two cows being kept in any one block, particularly as applied to the annexed district, came under consideration of the Council, the ordinance was recommended by the Council, and the ordinance was passed.

ment that the district be all of that portion of the city west of Adeline street. C. McCue spoke against permitting dairies to exist east of Adeline street, as well as other parts of the city, as dairies.

STREET COMMITTEE.
The Street Committee recommended that twenty days' notice be given of sidewalk grading, curbing and macadamizing Broadway street, from the corner of Twelfth and Clay streets to Gold street.

The petition of Mary Carroll for an extension of time to sidewalk thirty-third street was recommended to be granted.

The petition of M. K. Vickery for a sidewalk on Linda avenue was laid over for a report of the superintendent of streets.

The petition of the Independence Square District Improvement Club for cement sidewalks to be laid on Twenty-first avenue, from East Twelfth to East Fourteenth street, and on other streets, was favorably recommended.

TO REPEAT POET'S PLAY

Chas. Keeler's "Triumph of Light" Again to Be Seen.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—So successful was the mystery play of the poet, Charles Keeler in the Unitarian Church last Saturday night, that the entire performance of "The Triumph of Light" is to be repeated to-morrow night, at the same place.

The cast has kept up its rehearsals this week, and, it is possible, a more finished rendering of the lines is promised.

As far as scenic conditions are concerned, the mystery will be better staged than ever. The lighting, instead of being left to the possible treachery of the regular electric light wires, will be manipulated by calcium, which will be steadier and capable of more variations. The stage, which proved too small at the initial performance, has been widened to allow the large chorus to stand comfortably and artistically throughout the action. The costumes will be the same, the department having been admirably attended to in the first place.

Charles Keeler's venture into the dramatic poetry has attracted wide attention, and the performance on Saturday evening will bring to Berkeley a large number of literary and musical people from both sides of the bay.

In order to avoid the annoyance experienced in seating the audience last Saturday night, the committee has arranged a reserved seat system for the coming performance.

PRETTY WEDDING AT LIVERMORE.

THE HOME OF M. HANSEN SCENE OF DAUGHTER'S MARRIAGE.

LIVERMORE, Jan. 13.—The home of Mr. M. Hansen was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday when his daughter, Elinora, was united in marriage to Mr. V. Wensuer of Oakland. The ceremony took place at high noon, the Rev. J. Stone of the Presbyterian Church officiating. Miss Daisy Atwell, the niece of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Chris Hansen, the bride's brother, as best man.

The house was tastefully decorated in honor of the occasion. Only the relatives and immediate friends of the family attended the ceremony at the conclusion of which a breakfast was served. After which all the friends and relatives allude to town with the happy couple who left on the late train for a short honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wensuer will return to their future home.

INSTALL OFFICERS.

The Fraternal Brotherhood of this place gave a public installation last Monday night. The following officers took the chair for the coming year: Mr. G. Van Horn, president; Mrs. Albert Seagill, past president; Miss Buchanan, vice-president; Mr. Earl Inman, treasurer; Mr. D. Miguel, secretary; Mrs. Hagler, mistress of ceremonies; J. J. Gysen, sergeant and master-at-arms; Mr. Cull Quirk, doorkeeper and Victor, outside doorkeeper.

Miss Allen, Mr. Miguel, Inman and Mr. H. R. Crane were also initiated into the order.

After the initiation the floor was cleared for dancing which broke up at a late hour to be followed by a banquet.

PERSONALS.
Mr. E. P. Forman, insurance inspector, was in town the last few days.

Mr. Rehner Brannan left Wednesday for a week in the bay cities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dodson, organizers for the Fraternal Brotherhood, have been spending the past week in this place in the interest of business.

Mr. John J. O'Brien, general secretary of the Forester is in town.

TRINITY GUILD LECTURE.
An interesting course of lectures under the auspices of the Sunday School Commission is being delivered at Trinity Guild Hall. Last night, T. L. Heaton, assistant superintendent of the San Francisco public schools, spoke on "The Fundamentals of Teaching."

To-morrow, Friday, the Rev. C. T. Welkley of St. Paul's Church will speak on "Home Study and Examinations."

On Thursday evening, the 12th inst., Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Brien of St. Mark's, Berkeley, will talk on
